City Budget Is $28,000 Lower Than Last Year

$1,897,108 GC Total Exceeds Spending in 1964-65 by $176,000

The Granite City council, culminating a week of debate and delay, passed its 1965-66 budget and appropriation Monday night—fixing the figure at $1,897,108.

The new appropriation is $28,506 less than the budget of last year and $176,093 more than the amount actually spent for all budgeted items during the 1964-65 year.

True to form, the 14 attending aldermen approved the appropriation measure only after a stormy two-hour session that saw defeat of the budget on the first attempt to pass it, as a diversion by the council's finance officials in previous sessions.

A two-thirds majority was required to pass the appropriation. A minority bloc of four aldermen, two of whom were absent from the final budget-fighting meeting, the morning, Monday and Tuesday nights, opposed passage of the bill because they felt it was not in their wards' best interests.

Clyde Boyd of the Third Ward, who had not been seen at the meeting, had prepared a report on street projects. The report had been discussed and voted upon July 27.

Walter Noon, Fifth Ward alderman and a frequent objector to council issues, moved to amend the ordinance. He said the ordinance committee had not been consulted.

After reading the ordinance, Noon moved to make a motion to put it to a vote. G. H. Sternberg, Seventh Ward, moved for suspension of the rules to place the ordinance on the agenda.

After reading the ordinance, Noon was the first to take the floor, charging that "the Fourth and Fifth wards have been completely ignored in this budget in the way of services." He said the council had not paid for the street department to pay for the maintenance of the street.

Another thing, Noon went on, "they were going to update the streets in this budget and all they've done is set up $10,000 for patching holes."

Boyd said he did not find anything in the budget for the Third and Fourth wards. He objected particularly to a Clark Avenue and Johnson road drainage project which the street and alley committee had recommended but not carried out this year.

Boyd said he did not know "what is going on" because he had not seen a report on street projects prepared by the committee.

Then I'll vote against the ordinance," Boyd declared. Aldermen J. Green of the Fourth and Fifth wards, who were with him, also voted against the ordinance.

6 Inhale Chlorine Fumes, Become Ill At Swimming Pool

Leaking chlorine gas in the Wilson Park swimming pool caused five boys and their instructor to become ill Tuesday morning, and three were admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital with coughs and sore throats.

They were part of a free swimming class conducted by the Granite City park district.

Harold Brown, district superintendent, could determine no reason for the leak. He closed the pool until a service contractor disconnected and checked the lines and the chlorine tank Wednesday morning. Everything was in order, and the pool was reopened.

Admitted to the hospital after inhaling the fumes were John Hayes, nine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayes, 2903 Lindell Blvd.; Mark Schumacher, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schumacher, 2682 N. Main St.; and Bradley Brown, nine, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, 3133 Ash Ave.

Miss Lois Hurdwick, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hurdwick, 2720 Edwards St., the instructor, was treated and released.

Brown said that Mark Boone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Boone, 3414 Hill Avenue, was taken to the hospital to be checked, and that another boy went to see a doctor.

Brown said it was the first time such a leak had developed at the local pool.

The Madison County Selective Service board is awaiting instructions from Washington before changing its policy in the selection of draftees, it was learned today.

Board officials said, however, that the presidential order of Wednesday, directing the board to call for more men, would not be expected to be increased.

Boyd said that the increase in draft call will be effective Sept. 1.

The August 1 quota of 15,000 draftees from Madison County already has been received and is not expected to be increased.

Hearing Aug. 16 on Zoning for Rectangle East of Maryville Rd.

A residential and commercial development which could result in expenditure of $20 million over the next eight to ten years was disclosed today by Arthur McFarland and associates, who are asking to annex a 17-acre tract to the city of Granite City.

The project could have an effect on the Nameoki township sewer program on which an election is to be held Aug. 24, since a unincorporated area growth rather than municipal expansion was figured in the 40-year sewer financial projection.

A hearing on the zoning and annexation plan has been scheduled for Aug. 16 before the City Planning Commission.

The area is bounded on the south by a line near the intersection of the Wilshire Manor subdivision, on the west by Maryville road and on the north by Ponton road.

It is about three-quarters of a mile from north to south, and forms a rectangle extending a half-mile eastward from Maryville road.

Four districts are proposed, providing "buffer zones."

The entire portion near Ponton road, Maryville road and Wilshire would be R-3 for single family dwellings. Inside the Maryville road and on the north by Ponton road.

Chamber Dinner Honors SIU Personnel Opening Local Campus Sept. 22

President Delyte W. Morris and 20 other administrators and staff members of Southern Illinois University were guests of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce board Monday night at a dinner heralding the opening of the new local university, Sept. 22.

The gathering of 49 at Tony's restaurant afforded an opportunity for Quad-City to become acquainted with key officials of SIU and its Southwest Campus. The new four-year college university is expected to be a major stimulus to local growth as well as solving long-pending higher education needs.

Chamber President Carl E. Mathias welcomed the university representatives on behalf of the local community and stressed that Quad-City residents are looking forward to being of assistance in SIU-SW as it opens its doors and then immediately adds to the nucleus of educational facilities.

President Morris responded with thanks for the welcoming committee, which he described as a "gracious gesture."

Mutual Aid Benefits. A brief talk also was given by State Rep. Lloyd C. Harris (R-Granite City), chairman of the Illinois House Appropriations Committee, who expressed confidence that the university and community will be of great assistance in each other in the years to come.

Harold R. Fischer, chairman of the Granite City Chamber of Commerce and a member of the SIU board of trustees appointed by Gov. Otto Kerner, was instrumental in arranging the dinner.

Guests included not only Dr. Morris but three vice-presidents who serve both the Carbonade and Southwest campuses.

3 GC Youths Arrested in Burglary at Supermarket

Arrests were made this week in connection with burglaries at a Granite City supermarket and a Venice drug store area, police officials investigated a total of 13 thefts, burglaries, attempted burglaries and a strong-arm robbery.

Three young men were arrested on charges of burglary at the 2245 Madison Blvd. supermarket, 2205 Ponton road, at 2:03 a.m. Wednesday.

Taken into custody behind the store were Jack Warren, 24-year-old, 26, and David R. Cox, 19, both of 2028 Iowa street, and Jerry DeMontmolin, 18, of 2843 Myrtle avenue.

They requested preliminary hearings which were set for Aug. 9 by Magistrate William E. Johnson. He set property bonds at $200.

Police said they recovered a box of frozen meat, including turkeys, chickens and hamburger, taken from the meat freezer. Entry was gained by forcing the rear door, and a lock on the freezer was forced. Police were notified when a burglar alarm went off, and two squad cars with four officers converged on the school board, was named temporary chairman.

A 1953 auto parked at the rear of the store was removed to garage by a tow truck.

A tally showed $58 worth of merchandise was stolen.

Work With County. The new committee is to organize and elect its own officers, and to elect in cooperation with the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission and the state director, Mayor Hayes.

Its official policy will be to aid and assist in the elimination of poverty in the county, in accordance with the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964.

Mayor Mathias, who is on the board of directors of the county commission, said, "We will try to recruit as many people as we can of those who make less than $2,000 a year, to provide jobs for them."

Referring to anti-poverty splinter groups in the county, the mayor was critical of the "misleading" part of some people regarding county-wide coordination.

To Sell Tract. The council authorized a call for bids for sale of 3.66 acres in the northeast portion of its industrial tract, which has been under way for the bid sale with Illinois Power Co., which was to meet a bid to build the site to serve Granite City Steel Co. and other industries which locate in that area.

Bids will be received until 4:30 p.m. Sept. 7, when they will be publicly opened, and then considered at a meeting of the council that night.

Some things in there I would like to take out and there are some things I would like to put in, but we have to pass this budget tonight or we are going to be without money to operate the city.

City Aldermen
"Everybody has his pet projects, but I think it's time we quit acting like ward aldermen and start acting like city council members working for the city as a whole instead of our own little territories."

An objection that a $300 item for city hall repairs had not been included to cover the cost of money already spent on the Edmund Bartoskiak, Second Ward, chairman of the city hall committee. Bartoskiak, Nann, also objected to the fact that the $45,000 salary book had not included all city employees.

Charles Moerlein, First Ward, in answer to Nann's demand for a severance appropriation for North Granite, said that he had been investigating financing methods and that Nann's proposal for a severance fund could be worked out immediately.

"If something isn't done about this, I see how I can get down here (C. W. Klassen, chief engineer of the Illinois Sanitary Water Board, and I feel that the city should be looking for a new location for the city hall," he said. "I don't see North Granite. (Alderman) Green and I will get him down here and show him what is going on."

5-5 Initial Vote
Mayor Partney called for a roll call vote on passage of the ordinance. "No" votes were cast by Nann, Bartoskiak, Boyd, Roy, Pontius of the Third Ward and Green.

The 5-5 vote defeated the ordinance, since 11 "Yes" votes were required under the two-thirds rule.

While the ordinance was on the floor for final passage, Mayor Partney called for a vote. The only dissenting vote again was by Nann.

Salary Increases
Council members also agreed that the $45,000 jump salary appropriation for salary increases should have been spread to include all employees, amending the ordinance to read: "The salary of the city clerk shall be $45,000 per year."

The new budget provides a total of $32,444 for the police department, as compared to last year's budget of $28,787 and an increase of $3,657, or 12.7 percent, during the 1964-65 year.

For the fire department, the budget was $311,930 and expenditures were $302,993, or $8,937, or 2.8 percent, during the 1964-65 year.

The street department appropriation was fixed at $236,136, with the arterial street maintenance fund set at $88,944. Last year, the street department appropriation was $231,137, and expenditures were $223,519.

For the sewer maintenance fund, the new budget is only $80,000, compared to the $180,000 appropriation of last year, while the contingent fund was increased to $20,000 from last year's $15,000.

In the parking meter fund, the council added money for operation of the new Traffic Study Commission, setting the total at $24,220.

Annual Budget Opposition
Nann attempted at this point to make an amendment which Mayor Partney ruled out of order. It sought from the mayor this remark: "Gentlemen, I have been serving on this council for 18 years, and I have never seen a budget like this."

Nann jumped to his feet again. "Well," he said, "since they revised the figures last week to knock out $30,000 of the $60,000 we set up for a Namok fire station, then I move to amend the budget to include $60,000 for severance in North Granite."

Mayor Partney interrupted: "Waiter, you've got your figures a little mixed up. They reduced it $30,000 and you're talking about $60,000 being added to the budget."

"That's what I mean," Nann responded. "I mean $60,000." Nann took a beating on his motion. Negative votes to the $60,000 sever addition were cast by Whitmer, Bartoskiak, Ford, Johnson, William Dallas, Moerlein, Sternberg, Earl Thompson and Richard Fry.

Duties of City Zoning, Appeals Units Clarified

A mutual agreeable policy on zoning procedures was developed during a joint meeting of the City Planning Commission and Zoning Board of Appeals, held Tuesday afternoon in the city council room of the Granite City city hall at the request of Mayor Donald Partney.

Chairman of the commission and David John of the board. During the hour-and-a-half meeting, it was decided that the Planning Commission will act on all planning and zoning classification requests forwarded to the council. The Zoning Board of Appeals will handle building code matters and questions relating to property lines and yard requirements.

A question arose last week when the mayor and council noted that some Appeals Board actions regarding beauty shop zoning requests went beyond the original scope of board activities. This week's meeting is expected to eliminate duplicate jurisdiction.

Omit Clark-Johnson Drainage
The motion carried 8-6. Johnson moved to amend by adding $13,000 for a Johnson drainage project (to replace the Clark avenue project, just knocked out by Boyd's amendment). Eight of the 14 aldermen voted "No," defeating the amendment.

With all trades apparently completed, Sternberg withdrew his motion which had placed the ordinance on first reading. Bartoskiak moved for suspension of the rules and reconsideration of the ordinance for final passage. The only dissenting vote was cast by Nann.

With the ordinance now on the floor for final passage, Mayor Partney called for a vote. The only dissenting vote again was by Nann.

Salary Increases
Council members also agreed that the $45,000 jump salary appropriation for salary increases should have been spread to include all employees, amending the ordinance to read: "The salary of the city clerk shall be $45,000 per year."

The new budget provides a total of $32,444 for the police department, as compared to last year's budget of $28,787 and an increase of $3,657, or 12.7 percent, during the 1964-65 year.

For the fire department, the budget was $311,930 and expenditures were $302,993, or $8,937, or 2.8 percent, during the 1964-65 year.

The street department appropriation was fixed at $236,136, with the arterial street maintenance fund set at $88,944. Last year, the street department appropriation was $231,137, and expenditures were $223,519.

For the sewer maintenance fund, the new budget is only $80,000, compared to the $180,000 appropriation of last year, while the contingent fund was increased to $20,000 from last year's $15,000.

In the parking meter fund, the council added money for operation of the new Traffic Study Commission, setting the total at $24,220.

Annual Budget Opposition
Nann attempted at this point to make an amendment which Mayor Partney ruled out of order. It sought from the mayor this remark: "Gentlemen, I have been serving on this council for 18 years, and I have never seen a budget like this."

Nann jumped to his feet again. "Well," he said, "since they revised the figures last week to knock out $30,000 of the $60,000 we set up for a Namok fire station, then I move to amend the budget to include $60,000 for severance in North Granite."

Mayor Partney interrupted: "Waiter, you've got your figures a little mixed up. They reduced it $30,000 and you're talking about $60,000 being added to the budget."

"That's what I mean," Nann responded. "I mean $60,000." Nann took a beating on his motion. Negative votes to the $60,000 sever addition were cast by Whitmer, Bartoskiak, Ford, Johnson, William Dallas, Moerlein, Sternberg, Earl Thompson and Richard Fry.

Value of Convenient Storage Racks Cited

Storing items where they're easy to reach and grasp is an important principle in home storage. Keeping this principle in mind will help you to arrange storage so other members of the family can use it easily, says Helen E. Bell, extension home management specialist of Pennsylvania State University.

It also can help you find places for gardening, hobby, and play equipment that you don't use too often, she points out.

In the kitchen, a pedicure cabinet, a easy to reach and grasp items you need them. You can move books to accommodate various items. The do-it-yourselfer in the family can easily install such a board, not only in the kitchen but also in the clothing closet and over the workbench.

Using pedicure to store items is viewed as saving time and energy. It also is easy to install to improve existing storage or to include in storage areas planned for a new house or remodeled home.

Representatives of the Pentecostal church from more than a dozen states are attending the week-long camp, which is being hosted by the Bethel Pentecostal Chapel of Granite City. Rev. Kenneth Brand, pastor, has invited the public to attend Sunday's special services, scheduled for 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Girl Scouts at Roundup To Return on Saturday

Eight weary but starry-eyed Granite City Girl Scouts who have been attending the 1965 Senior Girl Scout Roundup at Farragut, Idaho, will return home on Saturday.

For 12 days the girls, along with 800 others from throughout the United States and 45 foreign countries, turned the four-day Farragut National Training Center into a tent city comparable with anything in the western world.

The local girls are Alta Bolliger, Marilyn Bandegard, Marie Greve, Lois Kueker, Chris Louis, Elizabeth McDonald, Diana Thompson and Cathy Zenik. They joined with 24 other girls from the surrounding area to form four patrols of eight each. When they arrived at Farragut, Idaho, the patrols separated and each was joined by three others from other parts of the map.

It is traditional at Roundup time for patrols to take a little of their home life with them to provide patrol demonstrations and two patrols from this area were selected for demonstrations at a rendezvous area.

Selected Demonstrations: The rendezvous was set up for visitors to view selected activities of the girls. One patrol, the "Shrieking Violets," based its demonstrations on the Granite City Steel Co. mill. The other selected patrol, the "Big Wheels," demonstrated Indian smoke signaling.

The other area patrols were the "Piassa Patrol" with a demonstration on the Chain of Rocks canal locks, and the "Flintstones" on Indian pottery.

The girls spent their time hiking in the mountains, exchanging gifts with new friends and watching exhibitions given by residents of Idaho.

Development Unit Is 18th State Department

Gov. Otto Kerner, acting on a series of legislative measures for his action by the legislature, has approved creation of a new State Department of Business and Economic Development and higher salaries for state officials.

The new Economic Development department becomes the 18th state departmental unit. It will handle trade promotion and help develop programs encouraging industries to locate in this state, as well as to expand existing ones by Illinois firms. It also establishes a division to aid 250,000 small businesses in Illinois, it was pointed out.

A measure boosting salaries—which raises the governor's annual pay from $30,000 to $45,000 and the lieutenant governor's from $18,000 to $25,000—will not become effective until present terms end. Other state officers will receive $30,000 instead of $20,000.

Increases also are included for the Illinois auditor general and the Illinois Youth Commission, Commerce Commission, Labor Commission and Civil Service Commission. Gov. Kerner also is expected to sign bills raising salaries of departmental directors.

Illinois supreme court justices will receive $37,500 instead of $33,000.

Schools, Mental Hospitals

Included among larger appropriations approved by the governor are $80.2 million for improvement at various state health institutions, $34.5 million for school transportation, driver education and school lunches and $22.9 million in state aid to existing junior colleges.

Also approved by the governor are bills appropriating $27.5 million for education of handicapped children and $7.7 million for gifted children; $6.2 million for adult education; $7.5 million for payment of interest and redemption of the state debt; and $2.9 million for payment of rentals for projects under the Illinois Building Authority.

The governor has vetoed a $500,000 appropriation for rehabilitation of the 110-year-old executive mansion. He said he found it simply beyond the budget, but the state could not afford it at this time because the "avalanche" of "drastically imbalanced" budget. Another part of the bill setting up a commission to study the problem of residential development in the executive mansion was approved by Kerner.

Bribery Probe
In approval of another measure, the governor authorized the Illinois House investigation of bribery allegations, but vetoed a $500,000 appropriation to finance it. A six-member commission will look into charges raised by tapes purportedly recording conversations in a Springfield hotel hinting at payoffs for lawmakers' votes against a currency exchange bill.

He has approved a series of bills which would transfer supervision of banks and trust companies from the Department of Financial Institutions to a Commissioner of Banks and Trust Companies and a Board of Banks and Trust Companies. The plan is subject to a vote by the public in November 1966.

Upon signing bills transferring regulation of savings and loan, student building loan and home-stead associations from the Department of Financial Institutions to a savings and loan commissioner and board, he appointed Justin Holman of Chicago as commissioner.

Other bills signed will revise procedures on state purchases of printing of stationery and envelopes.

Research and auditing appropriations for the state superintendent of public instruction were vetoed.

Scout Roundup Plans To Be Made Next Week

The Unwih District of the Cahokia Mount Boy Scout Council will initiate plans for the kickoff of the council's "roundup" program at a 7:30 p.m. roundtable meeting Aug. 3 at the Niederrhaus Methodist Church. The roundup is the annual program for the recruiting of new scouts and explorers.

"Follow the Rugged Road to Adventure," is the theme of the 1965 roundup, according to George T. Wilkins, council commissioner. "The theme offers an all irresistible invitation to all boys to join up," he said. Units must make their roundup pledges by Sept. 30.

A regular meeting of the Unwih district committee will take place at the Niederrhaus Methodist Church at the same time as the roundtable. The committee is to develop plans for meeting "breakthrough" goals, Dr. Stanley Maer, chairman, said.

The council is reminding cub packs of national summer pack awards, obtained by conducting three pack activities—one each during the three summer months. Scouts with at least 30 of their members participating will be eligible for den participation ribbons.

Bills Totalling $14,831 Approved by Council

Claims totaling $14,831 were approved by the Granite City Council in a regular meeting Monday night.

Largest bill on the list was $12,228 for National Disposal Co., payable out of the sanitation fund, for the month of July under the city's new contract for garbage and rubbish disposal.

Second largest claim was $874 to R. Dron Electrical Co. for maintenance of lift stations during April, May and June. The amount was paid out of the sewer maintenance fund.

Other claims ranged from as low as 35 cents paid to Joe's Sew Service for a key, to $300 paid to St. Louis Slag Products Co. for 336 tons of slag.

A total of $249 was paid out of the contingency fund to Aldermen Clyde Boyd, Richard Fry, Claude Green, Walter Nann, Gerald Farmlay, Roy Penick, Paul Rutledge and Sam Whitmer for July expenses at $30 each.

August Worst Month of Year For Auto Deaths

More motor vehicle deaths occur in August than in any other month, the American Insurance Association is pointing out to area motorists.

In 1964, 4810 persons died in motor vehicle accidents during August, almost 4% more than in October, the next most dangerous month for drivers.

According to the association, the high total for August is attributable mainly to the large numbers of vacationers who take to the roadways during that month. If you plan to be among them, the association advises, observe all the rules of driving safely and don't overload your car or trailer.

Other safe driving tips follow: "Drivers who use their eyes and heads never seem to get tangled up in traffic. With traffic accidents, injuries and deaths at an all-time high on the nation's streets and highways, the Illinois and U. S. toll is a reflection on the driving and walking practices of the people."

Five rules governing the five seeing steps are:

1. Aim high in steering. Get the long view ahead—the initial and continuing requirement in moving a vehicle in a suitable steering path. High-aim steering is the safety method of selecting this path.

2. Get the big picture—to the front, rear and side so that all factors in the traffic pattern which might affect the steering path can be accurately determined.

3. Keep your eyes moving. In order to get the big picture in sufficient time to avoid conflicts.

4. Leave yourself an "out"—by leaving space around your vehicle. This gives you the time to see and decide and for taking the necessary actions.

5. Make sure they see you—by use of any means of communication available. This includes the horn, lights, turn signals, stop lights or hand signals. Signal well ahead while the still time to avoid conflicts if the signals are not observed.

"Too many researchers have found drivers involved in accidents who said 'We didn't see' or 'We didn't know.' We hope that Quad-Cityans will combine caution and courtesy with the five rules for survival in their August driving."

City Inspectors To Check Tavern

City building and fire inspectors have been instructed to make a thorough inspection of conditions at a Namekodi road tavern, to determine if continued operation will be permitted.

The city council decided to order the inspection Monday night after Gerald Farmlay, Sixth Ward alderman, made an effort to hold up approval of a surety bond for the tavern pending an inspection. Farmlay displayed a newspaper clipping concerning a fire several months ago that started in a bird's nest in a restaurant.

Farmlay said that if a fire could start under such circumstances it was time the place was inspected for fire hazards and general building conditions.

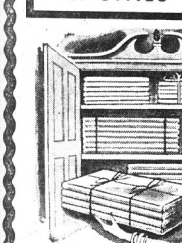

Walter Nann, Fifth Ward alderman, pointed out, however, that the bond was being presented and had to be acted upon, either by approval or rejection. He said he didn't believe the council could reject a surety bond that met the same requirements as surety bonds for all other taverns.

Nann said failure to act on a bond would be relieving the tavern owners of financial responsibility in the event something happened while the council was holding up the bond. He suggested approving the bond and instructing city inspectors to check the place.

Farmlay's motion was put to a vote and lost. Nann moved the bond be approved, and the motion carried. Council members then suggested the inspection, with a report to be made to alderman Donald Partridge, city liquor control commissioner.

Eagles 10-7 in Open Softball League Play

Union Starch defeated the Eagles 10-7 in the Open Softball League Monday night at Wilson Park.

The winners opened the game with three of their 18 hits and added another for a pair of tallies. They later picked away at a 6-3 lead gained by the Eagles in the sixth frame in the fourth inning. The Eagles then doubled and two each in the fifth and seventh innings.

Dave Babin and Dave Barthelme led the way in the fifth frame with doubles, while Jack Hubbell, who collected three hits, doubled in the seventh.

The Eagles took the lead at 4-3 in the second frame as Paul Bennett, Leon Holloway and John Webster doubled, and stretched the lead in the third as Jerry Walker doubled and Bill Herman tripled. Will Hight tripled to open the fourth (fifth and scored on a double by Herman Travis.

Inter-City League Finds Hearts, Mitchell at Home; Mercer Travels

Sacred Heart will host the Polish American War Veterans of East St. Louis at Wilson Park and Mitchell A.C. will be at home to Troy at the Mitchell Inter-City League games Sunday. Mercer travels to Maryville to play the A.C. Contractors.

In other games, Pocahontas, leading the Blue division of the league, will play the Cardinals (Kankakee) at Pocahontas, and the Maryville Red Sox, leading the Red division, will travel to East St. Louis for a game with St. Clair Heating.

Mitchell at 7-7 for the season still has a chance to catch Pocahontas, 2 1/2 games ahead of the pack at 10-3, and the lead could move into second place with a victory and a loss by St. Clair Heating, now 8-7.

Mercer, at 7-8, only a half game behind Mitchell, also could improve its record as the last place team in the league with only four of its 15 games.

The Hearts, tied with Troy at 7-7, are in the Red division at 5-10, may have their hands full against PAWV which lost week after week.

The three local teams were among eight to split in the week and time to catch the leaders is running out. The Sunday games begin the last full month of play.

Seven more playing dates are on the card, with the season scheduled to end Labor Day.

Playoffs will be held in the succeeding Sundays to decide the winner of the President Vernon Lucas trophy. Games this Sunday begin at 2:30 p.m.

THE MADISON COUNTY SPORTSMAN

By DON HASTINGS
County Conservation Officer

Off for a few weeks' vacation and a lot of work upon return.

To show the never ending variety in the position, in two days I was called to handle the following: a flying squirrel in a basement near Highland (I had not seen one in years), an alien dog (somebody moved out to Arkansas and left him and the sheriff asked me to investigate), I didn't get any pork as it disappeared before I got there, a squirrel (somebody's house), a garage at Mitchell (now in my garage and I hope the owner catches it soon) and a wounded bear cub at Daley.

Thank goodness this turned out to be a wounded baby deer caught in a fence. It was not worse for the wear and was taken to the Boy Scout camp at Godfrey. It should be safe there.

I have been teaching a class in conservation there every Wednesday night and am certainly impressed with the beauty of the camp and how well it is kept.

We had a very successful and well attended farm pond demonstration in cooperation with the conservation and farm adviser. As mentioned at this meeting, and I can vouch for it, there is nothing but work and money, and as hard as farming, in general.

We put 4500 bass fingerling in Silver Lake at Highland this week and expect more before the summer is out. Hope they really take hold.

The hottest channel cat bait seems to be small minnows on river lines at night set rather shallow. No, it is not against the law to use bluegill as bait. If they are caught on hook and line from the same water in which they are used as bait, you cannot get or sell them and then move them to another lake.

Two different boys from Edwardsville were lucky this week: a report of a one-pound, nine-ounce bluegill from a farm pond by one, and a three to four-pound flathead from Alabama lake by another. Both are high school seniors. So far this year, we have had several large bass from shallow water one of the best first days this week at Brighton. You just can't predict fish.

Squirrel Season Aug. 1

Sacred Heart opened Aug. 1 with a limit of five. Remember, you can hunt squirrels all the way to 12. On my last game, I caught 172 doves in the 25-mile trip and they are apparently plentiful all over the state.

I expect to step up the count this year to stop early dove hunting and hunting from the auto. This has been one of the best years so far as squirrel hunting. From all reports, there was little early hunting this year and all my early morning patrols brought nothing, but this is the way I like it.

Catches 20-Pound Fish

Mike Bradford, 2400 Terminal Avenue, reported catching a 20-pound catfish Tuesday morning while trolling along the bank of the Mississippi River. He was assisted by seven boys. Both were in making the catch by two means.

TIMELY HITTING, such as that exhibited by Adrien Rains of Sacred Heart this week, would be welcomed by the local team in its upcoming contest with the Polish-American War Veterans. Rains' single in the bottom of the ninth produced the game winning tally as the Hearts won 7-6 over St. Clair Heating.

VFW Trips Jiffy 7-5, Local 16 Gains 14-9 Win in 35 & Over League

VFW Post 1300 defeated Jiffy Car Wash 7-5 and Local 16 outshined Jacobsen 14-9 in 35 & Over Slow Pitch softball Monday night at Wilson Park.

Camie Smith led in the game. VFW scored four runs in the sixth inning and two in the seventh to assure the victory. Howard, Champion and John Mink doubled in the five-hit sixth frame, while the final tally scored on two singles and an error. John Harrison tripled in the second frame to score the first VFW marker.

Jiffy Car Wash scored once in the first on two singles and an error, another on a walk and a double by Al Kutzer. A single and a double by Gus Lignoul were good for one in the sixth while two singles and a double by George Nenniger brought in the final two runs in the seventh inning.

Local 16 took a commanding lead by scoring seven runs in the third frame after crossing the plate three times in the first and second innings.

Seven singles and doubles by Carl Linhart and Ron Homeyer accounted for the seven runs. Lefty Harris doubled and Don May tripled in the first to lead that attack, and George Wilkinson doubled in the second.

Jacobsen's also had a big third inning with five runs as John Palchoff, Les Thompson, Morris, Lymann, Tucker and Woodie Woodruff each doubled. Bud Taylor doubled in the first and scored on a hit. Three singles produced another in the second, and three more runs in the third frame. The final tally was 14-9.

Fewer Pheasants This Year; Season Shorter, Limits Will be Lower

Reports from game technicians indicate that Illinois hunters will have fewer pheasants in 1965 than they did last year, the Illinois Department of Conservation has announced.

The lower Illinois population follows a national trend.

Limits have been lowered and the season has been shortened because of the anticipated lower population.

Pheasant season will begin at noon, CST, Saturday, Nov. 13, and will end at sunset Sunday, Nov. 13, and end at sunset Sunday, Dec. 12. Limits are two partridge per day and four in possession after opening day. On opening day both limits are the same—two cock pheasants.

The Hungarian partridge season coincides with the pheasant season. It will begin at noon, CST, Saturday, Nov. 13, and will end at sunset Sunday, Dec. 12. Limits are two partridge per day and four in possession after opening day. On opening day both limits are the same—two cock pheasants.

Bobwhite quail season will begin at noon, CST, Saturday, Nov. 13, and end at sunset Sunday, Dec. 12. Limits are eight quail per day and 16 in possession after opening day. On opening day both limits are the same—eight quail.

Hunting hours after opening day are from sunrise until sunset for pheasants, partridge and quail.

Rabbit season will begin at sunrise, Monday, Jan. 31, 1966. Hunting hours are from sunrise until sunset every day of the season. Hunters may take five rabbits and have 10 rabbits in possession after opening day.

Instructions for Duck Hunters in 3 Counties

Duck hunters who want duck blinds in Mississippi navigation Pools 12, 13 and 14, located in Jo Daviess, Carroll and White counties, do not have to register their blinds with the county conservation officer as they have been required to do in past years. William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, announced this week that does not apply to blinds in the Potter's Marsh and Savanna Ordinance Areas.

All blinds must be at least 150 yards apart. This regulation will be strictly enforced. Hunters must select their sites and begin construction of their blinds as soon as they wish. Copies of the regulations will be available from the county conservation officers and at access points in each pool.

A public drawing will be held at the Lacy River Marina, north of Savanna, starting at 2 p.m. CST, Saturday, Aug. 7, for blind sites in Potter's Marsh and the Savanna Ordinance Areas. Hunters must register between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. CST, to be eligible for the drawing.

Applicants for the drawing must be 16 years old, must have a 1964 or 1965 hunting license in their possession and must be present at the drawing. Regulations pertaining to the Potter's Marsh and Ordinance Areas will be explained before the drawing.

Duck Blind Sites Along 2 Rivers Will Be Determined on Aug. 7, 8

Public drawings for duck blind sites on state properties along the Illinois River and on federal lands along the Mississippi will be held Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 7 and 8, William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, announced today.

Hunters must register for the drawings between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. and they must be present at the drawings, which will begin at 2 p.m. Registrants must be at least 16 years old and must have a 1964 or 1965 hunting license in their possession. Dates and locations for the Illinois River drawings are as follows:

Sangamon-Knappe Island—Aug. 7, at the river landing check station on the west side of the Illinois, 1 1/2 miles north of Brownsville, off of Illinois Route 100.

Spring Lake, Tazewell County—Aug. 7, at Pat's Landing on the county road crossing Spring Lake.

Woodford county—Aug. 7, at the public hunting and fishing area, north of the Woodford County area and about seven miles south of Lacon.

Open AAU Swim Meet

Paddlers swimming club will participate in an open AAU meet starting at 9 a.m. Friday and Saturday in Marion, Ill. About 95 swimming events and 20 diving events are on the card.

Visiting Paddlers Club Gains 352-205 Victory at Dorchester

Paddlers Club remained undefeated in dual-meet competition with a 352-205 win over Dorchester of Belleville Monday night at Belleville.

The Paddlers swam without the services of John Evenden, who was visiting at the University of Iowa, but still showed strength in the older boys group, with Bob Malottki, Mark Dufner, Pete Sablin and Stan Hoffman sharing the chores.

Ann Bickhaus, 11-12 girls, remained undefeated by winning three events—free style, breast stroke and butterfly stroke.

The local swimming team dominated the relay, losing only in the 12- and under boys medley and 15-17 girls free style.

The Paddlers will be host to the annual conference meet Friday and Saturday.

In Pools and Ponds...

the downstate fisherman

by pete brown

With the exception of Horse-shoe Lake, Cairo, fishing tailgating throughout most of Southern Illinois the past week.

Working hard and late, Crab Orchard veterans came in with centerpieces of small bass, and the same kind of action was reported at Little Grassy, Devil's Kitchen showed only one listing on the dockside log, three bass up to three pounds caught on the Rabel by Melvin Schmitz of Belleville.

Biggest catch of the week at Little Grassy was a four-and-three-quarter-pound carp, nailed on cottonwood bait by Paul Lemon of Millstadt.

There's been no break in the tradition of the Cairo fisherman. Bass fishermen are catching them in fair numbers but anything over two pounds has become a rarity. Robert Kamoloff, Murphysboro, and his partner, James 16 in the one-pound range, fishing deep with weighted plastic worms. The lake turns up whopper redear once in awhile but the overall sunfish action is slow.

Horsehoe continues to afford pinking crines of minnows, crappie, bluegill, redear, catfish and bass—but the big crappie get top billing again.

Gene Ford, Cairo, hauled in 20 of which 14 classified as one and a quarter pounds to two pounds.

But the spot being most closely watched in that area is the Ohio river bar at Mound City. The light to good fishing in a river state slightly below 18 feet and it hit that point last week. One Cairo trio hit the bar for a clothesline full 60 striped bass averaging slightly over a pound.

The bar's exposed hump during this party was about 20 feet long and eight feet wide.

A "safety post," to which is attached a reaching pole, ring buoy or inflated tractor wheel tire with length of rope attached, and weather-proof can with rescue instructions printed on it, is equally useful beside a home swimming pool and a farm pond.

Long-Ball Hitting by King's Men Decisive In Slow-Pitch Contest

Long-ball hitting by the King's men enabled them to overpower Granite City Sheet Metal 13-5 in High School League slow-pitch softball action last night at Wilson Park.

Joe Hauptman clubbed a pair of home runs, while Gene Bryant, Nick Jakich and John Bohannon each hit one for the winners. The Blue Pumas, who took a one-run lead in the bottom of the first, were held to a scoreless inning in the top half.

The Blue Pumas came up with four runs in the bottom of the seventh to edge Roca 8-7. Dave Wachter's triple was the big blow in the winner's rally.

YMC-A downed the Farmers 13-6 as Kerry Ervay banged out four hits in as many at-bats for the winning team. Lester Robertson went three for three for the Farmers.

In make-up game, Granite City Sheet Metal outlasted the Farmers 13-5 on the strength of a three-run inning by Greg Patton and Dan Patton.

GC Woman Bound Over On Shooting Charge

Bond was set at $3000, which she had previously furnished. Her husband, Jack Sneed, and Mrs. Judith Sheeley, both of Granite City, were the shooting victims. Both are in satisfactory condition today. Sneed at St. Luke's Hospital, St. Louis, and Mrs. Sheeley at the Jewish Hospital, St. Louis, where she was transferred from the Hillboro hospital.

In her appearance Monday before Associate Circuit Judge Fox D. Meyer at Greenville, Mrs. Sneed was accompanied by her mother and two of her four children.

300 See Loss In Final Dual Swim Meet

A crowd of over 300 saw Summers-Potter defeat Paddlers of Granite City in the final dual swim meet of the season last night at the looser pool. During the hotly-contested meet, a score was tied seven times with the Alton club emerging the victor in the final event.

The local swimmers will have a final opportunity to test the perennial conference champions this year on Friday and Saturday, Aug. 6 and 7, when the all-conference championship classic will be held at Padua pool, 2020 Johnson road.

Highlight of last night's contest was the 15-17 senior boys 100-meter butterfly race between Pat Barrett of Alton and John Evenden of Granite City. The two, who have been competing against each other for the past four years, swam stroke for stroke until the final seconds, when Barrett got his second victory in four seasons of dual meet competition over the local entrant.

Evening came back to drop Jack Penning of Alton, an All-State swimmer, in the 100-meter free-style event by one-tenth of a second and also captured the senior boys' 200-meter individual medley event.

Paddlers younger age group swimmers dominated their events with Ann Bickhaus in the 11-12 girls division winning the 100-meter individual medley in 1:26; 50-meter breaststroke in 4:55 and 50-meter butterfly in 2:24.

Cindy Blumenshott of Paddlers turned in an excellent performance with a butterfly stroke win in the 11-12 girls division and came back in the next race to finish third in the 13-14 girls 100-meter stroke contest.

In diving, Paddlers surged well-ahead of the Alton club. Local winners included Jimmy Spinks, 12 and under boys; Sue Lybarger, 12 and under girls; and Debbie Evers, who won the 13-14 girls and 15-17 girls divisions. Jimmy Moran defeated Kelly Hagan for the 15-17 boys event.

Johnson Appointed Chairman of Joint Steering Group

Russell D. Johnson, superintendent of schools, was named chairman of a steering committee for joint operation of the city, government and the park and school districts of Granite City.

A meeting of the group was held Wednesday night. The committee was made by Mayor Donald Patton.

Attending the meeting were Johnson, Mayor Patton, Alderman Ford Johnson, Attorney Leo Kozner, L. Monroe Wooten, school board president; Dr. E. W. Walton, school board secretary; Barry Leman, park board president; W. Milton Worthington, city vice-president; and William Kozak, park commissioner.

It was agreed that the committee will meet on the third Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m., with special meetings called to call the board into session. The place of the meeting will be designated by the chairman.

Sup. Johnson expressed the belief that the political issues should be considered, and the others concurred.

General Meetings

Every third meeting will include all members of the respective municipal bodies represented on the steering committee. These general or overall meetings will take place in March, June, September and December.

The general group will not vote and will not be a policy-making body. It will serve as a forum for discussion. The steering committee will report to the general group merely as a point of information.

A motion was adopted that all news releases will be given by the committee's secretary, Kozner, to the news media.

It was thought that more frank opinions could be given if the meeting were not open to the public.

Commissioner Kozak pointed out that any decision reached by the steering committee would have to be discussed and approved by the respective municipal bodies.

It was mentioned that the steering committee, which will operate as a separate entity, could help resolve such problems as what to do with the old post office site. It is scheduled to become a scenic park.

GC Man's Sister Dies

Mrs. Aurelia Mittelbach, 28, East Carondelet, Ill., a sister to Walter Chatfield, Granite City, was found dead in her home Wednesday morning. She had been ill for the past 12 years. She also is survived by her husband, a daughter, two sisters, another brother, three grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Regional Slow-Pitch Competition To Resume Sunday at Wilson Park

Regional play will resume Sunday evening at Wilson Park to qualify teams for the Illinois Amateur Softball Association state slow-pitch tournament.

Eighteen teams were originally entered in the Granite City regional, and eight of them will advance to the state meet which is to be held Aug. 20-22 at Wilson Park.

In last Sunday's action, Larry's Corner downed Sammy's Tavern 11-4; the Ravens defeated the Community Heaters 8-5; and the Peter Potomuses ousted the Kings Men in another contest decided by an 8-score.

Larry's with its win, and A-C Contractors, the defending state champions, are assured of berths in the state tournament. Eighteen teams from throughout Illinois will participate in the state-elimination affair.

The Ravens and Peter Potomuses were among the last entries to pick up roster forms, so these teams will have to play regional if they are to qualify for the state meet.

Teams from Wilsonville and Bunker Hill, which were recent winners in the Wilsonville regional, have been added to the field. The state champion will earn a trip to the world tournament at Maumee, Ohio.

Trophies for the winners of the state tournament are on display at First Granite City Savings & Loan, 1825 Delmar avenue.

Sunday's schedule is listed in today's "Wilson Park Softball" column.

More Land to be Acquired Near Parks Airport

Bi-State Development Agency commissioners yesterday ratified an agreement to acquire option renewals and additional land, totaling 81 acres, in the area of the Parks Bi-State Airport, south of East St. Louis.

Part of the newly-acquired acreage will be used for proposed extension of the present 4025-foot paved and lighted runway to 7025 feet. Construction of additional hangars and maintenance areas is planned on a separate portion of the land, also included in the same transaction.

In other action, the commissioners authorized revised charter rates for the Regional Transit System; expenditure of $23,000 for improvements to the Belleville-Fallouville St. Louis bus facility; and an experimental 30-cent round-trip fare for a single bus line in the central St. Louis zone.

Planning Appointments

Two appointments to area planning groups were approved by the board. These named were Morton Berman of St. Louis, who replaces Robert S. Knapp of St. Louis in the Regional Industrial Development Corporation, and Edward J. Delmore Jr. of Caseyville, who accepted a new appointment as representative to the Illinois Metro-East Development Corporation.

Part of the newly-acquired airport land recently was purchased through the Southwest Regional Port Authority and comprises the westernmost portion of the airport development project. After current legal transactions are completed, the new area will be incorporated into the overall airport plans.

Col. R. E. Smyer, Bi-State executive director, told the commissioners the sum of $17,500 was advanced by the state of Illinois to Southwest Port Authority, which received title to the land last month. He said the provision that Bi-State would purchase the required remaining tracts.

Airport Budget
An annual operating budget for Parks Airport was adopted. It shows an estimated revenue of $58,100 from July 1, 1965, to June 30, 1966, and operating expenses of $38,300 for the same period.

The balance and the first $100,000 of a five-year loan from the city of St. Louis will be applied to interest on revenue bonds and to finance purchase of the airport.

The board approved an increase in hourly charter bus rates for non-scheduled service, effective Sept. 1. New rates were set at $2.25 per hour, up 25 cents per hour for service up to eight hours and a 50-cent increase to $3 per hour for charters over the eight-hour limit.

Cut Mileage Charge
However, in order to remain competitive with privately-operated charter companies and to assist in promoting increased use of the Bi-State charter service, R. Carl Robinson, executive officer of Transit Services Corp., recommended a decrease in mileage charges for trips exceeding 30 miles. It was approved.

The transit system operates a non-scheduled charter service for school districts, businesses and organizations in a six-county area in Illinois and Missouri and throughout the metropolitan area. On a 90-day trial basis, the commissioners approved a 30-cent round-trip ticket for a heavily-populated bus route between downtown St. Louis and 15th and Lafayette streets, which includes an area with numerous housing developments. Tentative date for inauguration of the experimental fare was announced as Oct. 1. No transfer passes will be issued in connection with the trial project.

Lory, Highland; and Richard Shunkewitz, Alton.

Board members serving until Aug. 31, 1966, are Dr. Travis Blumfield, Dr. Alton Grand, Dr. Richard Gross, Dr. John M. Roberts, Alton, Dr. W. M. Brown, Collinsville, Mrs. George Thurman, R.N., Collinsville, Dr. Elsworth Young, Highland, Mrs. D. M. Buckley, Edwardsville, Mrs. W. Chertoff, Collinsville, John C. Fallon, Alton, Mrs. Joseph Gorman, Alton, Miss Kathleen Gorman, Alton, Mrs. J. P. Patton, Collinsville, Mrs. Glen Pruitt, Alton, Paul Stubbs, Alton and Mrs. C. Page Taylor, Godfrey.

Resisting Charge Filed
Roy Ray Baker, 30, of 914 Niedringhaus avenue was charged with resisting arrest or obstructing a peace officer during a disturbance meeting of the club yesterday.

Savings in fire insurance premiums totaling $3000 annually are possible with certain improvements to the Belleville transit facility and the addition of sprinkler systems and other fire protection apparatus. It was pointed out by Robinson, FCS system manager who added that an immediate expenditure of $32,000 on the Belleville-East St. Louis division could be returned in slightly over two years.

Other improvements were described as grading and paving, construction of a retaining wall, installation of a washing machine and sewer outlets and conversion of an obsolete stoker-type furnace to a gas heating unit.

Arch Delay Possible
A two-to-three-month delay in completion of the St. Louis arch is possible, C. Smyer informed the board. He reported that only one qualified bid had been received for partial completion of the arch under ground Visitors' Center, and this is in excess of cost estimates.

The State Agency will operate capsule cars carrying passengers to the top of the arch on the St. Louis riverfront. The capsule system project was included in the bidding. The bidder was Hest Stettin Construction Co., Alton.

It was announced that a meeting of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Committee is slated for Aug. 7.

A report from the transit system showing June revenue of $1,040,600 and operating expenses of $1,042,648 was received by the board. The report showed fund payments for the month of $123,399.

Rate Increases in Some Types of Car Insurance Slated

Auto insurance rates in Madison county will be raised an average of $11 to $30 yearly, the Insurance Information Institute said Tuesday. Effective date was yesterday, but existing policies will not be affected.

The statewide average increase for private auto liability insurance will be 10.9%. For all types of cars, the physical damage insurance premium will rise 15.3%.

In most townships in this county, liability will rise $1 annually, collision deductibles in Chouteau township and the Collinsville, Edwardsville and Alton areas, that increase will be $6 yearly on liability, $11 on $50-deductible and $10 on $100-deductible and $10 on comprehensive (theft, fire, storm, vandalism).

Precise effect when policies are renewed will vary according to where the motorist lives, the type and age of auto and its principal use, his driving record, whether there are youthful drivers in the household and their age, sex, marital status and driver training, the amount of insurance carried and other factors.

Rates also have been altered in many other but not all sections of the state.

Name New Members of Health Services Fund

A requested allotment of $7,500 for the 1968 United Fund budget was presented Tuesday afternoon in a meeting of the Health Services Fund board in the YMCA. The request will be acted upon by the UF board of directors this afternoon.

The board also appointed three new members, Dr. Edna Koch, who also is a vice-president of the United Fund board; Dr. Stanley E. Nae, a member of the UF board; and Rev. Edwin Krause, pastor of the Good Shepherd Evangelical United Brethren church, who will represent the Quad-City Ministerial Association.

The board was presented a report on payment of $2442 for treatment of 14 cases. The amount included $358 for treatment of cancer cases, the largest single item, $362 for treatment of heart patients; $339 for treatment of a brain tumor case, $241 for gynecology cases and $149 for cerebral palsy cases. These represented the heaviest costs among the 14 cases.

Approval of payment of 75% of the cost of a heart case and 75% of the cost of an auto accident case was voted by the board.

Park Board May Name Assistant

A proposal to hire an assistant to aid Park Supt. Harold Brown in supervising a meeting of the Granite City park board Wednesday night.

Brown, board president, said he would prefer an SIU graduate student as an assistant to take over part of the supervisory work load in the park district.

Loman suggested the board could pay a salary of $100 monthly to a single man, or $5000 to a married man who could successfully handle the assistant's position. Loman said the matter should be considered, but no definite action was taken.

The board also reported that a net profit of $1543 was realized from the July 4 celebration, and declared the program was extremely successful in that it kept many Quad-Cityans at home instead of the highways during the holiday period.

W. M. Worthen, vice-president, said such service was the principal part of the celebration program and that a monetary profit was secondary.

Board members reported that the "Music Under the Stars" program also had been highly successful this summer, attracting many thousands of persons to the presentations at Wilson Park.

Commissioner Clarence Baumbach said that he considered the use of the rules at the July 4 picnic unsafe, and noted some were not fenced in, but that it was difficult to obtain rules without concessions, as has been customary here. He suggested the possibility of having a new carnival organization to provide rides, and said this should be checked soon, since

Salvation Army Directors Meet With Lt. Gordon

Lt. Ronald Gordon, local Salvation Army executive, who succeeded Capt. Mildred Walker here on July 1, was officially introduced to members of the Quad-City Salvation Army Advisory Board at a luncheon meeting yesterday in the Grand Cafe.

It was the first meeting of the group since Lt. Gordon assumed supervision of the local office at 1421 Nineteenth street. Both Lt. Gordon and his wife, Sandra, hold the rank of lieutenant in the Corps. They are residing with their three young children, David, Wendy, Jo, and Mark, in the Salvation Army home at 2540 Delmar avenue.

Christ Poshoff, advisory board president, conducted the business meeting yesterday, during which Supt. of Schools Russell D. Johnson was appointed to complete the unexpected term of Gerald Broadway, a recently-deceased board member. Other business centered on the acquisition of a new bus to replace a badly-deteriorated vehicle which cannot be used in its condition. The new bus would be utilized primarily for youth activities in connection with a proposed expanded youth program, Lt. Gordon said, including transporting youngsters to camp and for other recreational purposes.

Released from Hospital

Philip L. Stamps, 26, of 4737 Warnock avenue, accidentally wounded when a pistol discharged at his home July 24, was released yesterday from St. Elizabeth Hospital.

The park district is about ready to sign a contract for the Labor Day celebration Sept. 3-5.

The board was told that $14,500 must be paid by Sept. 2 for work in a road around the new Worthen Park on Maryville road.

The district now has a balance of $46,000 and July and August expenditures will amount to approximately $13,000, including $2100 in salaries for the last two weeks of operation of the summer recreation program. This will permit investment of the balance of about $33,000 in time deposit certificates at 3% interest.

YOU'LL NEVER BELIEVE YOUR EYES! Here's a spot — curious Magnetic Hill — near Moncton, New Brunswick, where motor cars in defiance of all the laws of gravitation seem to travel uphill without benefit of gasoline. You prove it by motoring to the "bottom," shut off the motor, release the brakes and throw the gears in neutral. In two minutes you are back where you started, at the "top." An optical illusion, some say. The conformation of the surrounding countryside makes the slope appear to run in the opposite direction from what it actually does.

State Banking Department Vote Explained

Pointing out that Gov. Otto Kerner last week signed Senate Bills 1025-29, which were introduced as a result of a two-year study conducted by the Illinois Bankers Association, the IBA today said the effect of those bills is to create a new state banking department concerned only with the supervision and welfare of the state banks in Illinois.

It will be headed by a Commissioner of Banks and Trust Companies appointed by the Governor for a five-year term. The Governor will also appoint for three-year terms an 11-man board consisting of the representatives of the general public. The latter four appointees could not own more than 5% of the stock of any Illinois bank.

The Illinois Constitution makes it mandatory that the changes in the Illinois Banking Act be submitted to referendum. If approved by the voters at the November 1966 general election, the new act will become effective Jan. 1, 1967.

Prior to Jan. 1, 1968, supervision of state banks was vested in the office of the Auditor of Public Accounts. On that date, the banking division became a part of the Department of Financial Institutions.

The new act, prepared under the supervision of the Illinois Bankers Association with the cooperation of the director of Financial Institutions, will enable Illinois to become the first state in the union to establish a banking department devoted solely to the banking industry.

Under the new act, all costs of the operation of the department will be assessed against the industry, thus making it completely self-supporting. Numerous changes have been made in the technical aspects of the banking law to enable banks to better serve their communities and customers in the modern concept of banking, the IBA said.

A possibly controversial provision would enable banks to operate drive-up facilities apart from their main banking quarters, but within 1500 feet of them.

Director of the Department of Financial Institutions Joseph E. Knapp, termed the new act "the most progressive banking legislation ever enacted by any state." The bills, as approved by the governor, passed the Senate and House by unanimous vote.

Indictments Seen In Barnes Murder Case in September

The four-year-old Billy Barnes murder case will be presented before the grand jury to convene in September, Capt. Louis Bowman, chief investigator for the sheriff's office, said today.

Capt. Bowman said he expects the jury to indict two men who are still under charges in the murder and will "present many startling facts before the grand jury." They have been at liberty under $10,000 bonds.

Barnes was shot to death Oct. 26, 1961, in his car on a side road off Edwardsville road south of the hotel furniture plant of Granite City Steel Co. and near the railroad tower where he worked as a telegrapher for the Nickel Plate Railroad.

A month ago, Niehaus presented petitions to Chief Circuit Judge Harold R. Clark seeking an immediate grand jury investigation of the murder to clear him of the charge of being an accessory before the fact in the fatal shooting.

Capt. Bowman, who was assigned by Judge Clark a year ago to investigate the case, said he has found witnesses who previously were reluctant to become involved but who will be called to testify before the grand jury.

"There have been interim demands to prosecute the case, especially by Barnes' widow and J. Robert Scott, Nickel Plate Railroad investigator, ever since two men were arrested shortly after the murder, Dick Mudge, former state's attorney, ruled there was insufficient evidence to bring indictments.

Summer Heat Poses Special Problem for Heart Patients

Summer is a season of well-being, for persons with heart and blood vessel diseases as well as for those who are in good health.

Respiratory infections and sore throats bow out of the picture to a great extent, and the weather seems to be on our side, for the most part.

Until the first heat wave hits. Then all of us experience a set of miseries too familiar to require description. But while we may just be miserable, the consequences for persons suffering from circulatory disorders may be more serious, the Illinois Heart Association warns.

In all of us, the heart works harder under conditions of high heat and humidity to maintain body temperature at normal levels. It does this by pumping a greater volume of blood at a faster rate, actually measurable in controlled experiments.

The normal heart has adequate reserve power to accommodate the stress imposed by heat and humidity. But the demands placed on a damaged heart may add up to dangerous strain—as much, or even more, than burdens imposed by exercise or exertion.

Suggestions given

The wise thing to do, then, is take it easy and try to keep cool. The standard hot weather tip—eat and dress lightly, bathe or shower often, stay out of the hot sun, avoid undue exertion—are good advice for the cardiac as well as for healthy persons of all ages.

Summer heat has another built-in health hazard of particular significance to persons with circulatory problems: salt depletion.

We perspire heavily in hot weather, losing large quantities of salt as well as fluid in the process.

Replacement, by drinking more water and taking extra salt, usually at the table, would seem to be a simple counter measure. But what about the cardiac, or hypertensive patient, in whom the doctor is trying to lower salt intake, or to promote salt excretion by means of certain drugs?

For such patients, the stepped-up loss resulting from heat stress may combine with drug-induced salt loss to produce harmful circulatory changes.

The Illinois Heart Association advises these patients: "Don't wait for the hottest weather; see your doctor now so that your medication can be checked and modified if necessary, before the summer heat gets worse."

Site Indefinite for New State Training School

Local interest is being aroused by the proposal for an Illinois Youth Commission training school for delinquent boys to be located somewhere in Madison or St. Clair counties. It would have an annual budget of about $2 million for goods and services, and would employ 140 to 150 persons. John Troike, IYC chairman, has announced that he is recommending the East St. Louis region for the school. Precinct sites have not yet been considered.

Acid Victim Receives 2nd Threatening Note

Larry Curry, 17, of 4740 N. 10th St., victim of an acid-throwing assault July 10, received another threatening note early this week.

D. H. Futrell, 52, Succumbs Wednesday

The note, which read, "You won't be so lucky next time," was left on a window sill at his home. It was turned over to Capt. Louis Bowman, chief investigator for the county sheriff's office, who is handling the case.

A deep-seated assault threw a glass containing liquid acid in Curry's face in the driveway of his home on the night of July 10, causing damage to his eyes.

He has responded to treatment at McMillan Hospital in St. Louis and much of the impairment has been corrected. He has been recuperating at home. The first note was left on the windshield of his car on July 10 when Curry was unloading a boy's baseball game at Wilson Park. It read, "You will get it tonight."

Since the attack, Curry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Egan Curry, installed flood lights around their home. An unidentified person was seen leaving the house before the note was found.

Dennis H. Futrell, 52, of 2433 Center street died at about 5:30 p.m. yesterday in St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he had been a patient for 12 hours. Under medical care for a heart ailment, Mr. Futrell had been ill for one week.

What's Right With America

By Henri Aldridge

I would like you to consider with me a familiar topic, one with which I must, in candor, concede I bear some pretty old-fashioned ideas. Let's consider our country from a point of view that perhaps is somewhat different from that so commonplace today—let's think for a moment about that which is right with America, for a change.

The thing that brings all this to mind is that which I conceive to be a growing tendency, indeed a trend, among the powerful and presumably well-informed, that there is something basically wrong with Americans that all of a sudden the things we once believed were wonderful and fine are really shoddy and tarnished, and that all the world stands about us shaking its head and wagging its finger in disapproval and reproach.

Infertility Complex
There is developing, I suggest, a massive national infertility complex, that is as dangerous as it is false.

Certain of our own leaders have suggested that we are fast becoming a "second-class nation" unless we mend our ways, that our "world-image" has become distorted in the eyes of right-thinking people.

Well, I don't believe it for one minute and I think the time has come to say so.

Indeed, I am far less concerned with our "image in the eyes of other nations" than I am with the vision we are placing in the eyes of our children and our children's children.

If you can agree with me that this is so, let's stop apologizing and see what's right with America. For now, of all times, is a good one for a weighing of values, and that is no mere emotional exercise.

Nearly three-quarters of a century ago, Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, in speaking to the New England society, said: "If Americanism is the right sort we cannot have too much. We're vaporing and boasting because a nation as little as a man, that honest, outspoken, and faithful in our country are infinitely better and more to be respected than the great nations which set it down as ill-bred and in bad taste to refer to their country except in terms of depreciation, criticism or general negation."

Love, Honor Nation
"Let every man honor and love the land of his birth and the race from which he springs, and their memory shall be a pious and honorable duty." This, of course, is true, but I approach the concept with a peculiar conflict of conviction and uncertainty.

Essaying to voice a deeply felt emotion is not an easy thing. It is like asking a man if he loves his family—and if so, why?—I know, of course, that he does—deeply, devotedly, eternally, instinctively, but how to express it?

Am I proud to be an American?—Is there something right about my homeland? Yes, of a certainty, the question is almost offensive in suggesting that a question exists. But why? How can we be so sure?

World Leadership
First, I am truly proud that we Americans hold a privileged membership in a society that for some mighty and mysterious reason Providence has selected to fill its purposes, and that, however so often we come to turn our backs on Him, we have never yet entirely forgotten Him. Nor have we ever been so completely and so honestly as we can be worthy leaders in a world where leadership for good was never more sorely needed.

Surely no thinking man suggests that it is a cosmic accident that men everywhere, through their hunger and despairing eyes upon us for guidance and national strength of character. Surely this is part of God's design.

Have you ever considered how helpless and pathetic it would be to live in some remote and nameless, rain-unknown and unloved, nationally impotent subject to the whims of other nations' ambitions, never knowing from day to day who your current masters may be?

I actually think that we cannot imagine it. It is a vision beyond our comprehension and certainly beyond our experience, and yet, so it is only for a portion of the earth's surface and among the mass of this world's population.

We have existed so long as a citadel of wealth and strength that we cannot envision national weakness or poverty.

I believe, and I am at once proud and humble, that basically this country is a God-fearing Christian nation and I entertain no question but that it wants to and will ultimately live to His will.

Fair-Minded Men
Secondly, I am proud that America is essentially a land of fair-minded men, men infused by instinct and tradition with a certain regard for the rights of the individual, and with an inherent yearning and concept for justice and law among themselves.

I know that no matter how far the pendulum of injustice, even tyranny, may swing, that individual instances and at particular times, there is in us a built-in equilibrium that can, and does, bring the scales of right into true and equal balance again.

Again, I am intensely proud of the almost unique broadness of the people of this favored land, the spirit of oneness and mutual respect that permeates our national way of life—unique, indeed, when viewed in the light of the countless and divergent worldviews and origins of our people.

I seriously doubt that upon any other continent, nor at any point of time, have so many men of varying races, nationalities, religions, cultures, customs, backgrounds or traditions developed among themselves so happily a sense of brotherhood and congeniality of mutual effort and respect.

We have our differences of opinion and points of view which frequently we enthusiastically hammer upon the heads of our neighbors, indeed, in our parent desire to "improve" and "elevate" our neighbors to a height of brotherhood and perfection equal to our own has become almost a national obsession.

Basic Unity
But was it not beyond our shores who confuses our brotherhood with zeal with weakness or disunity?

No less than twice within this generation have certain ambitious leaders, arrogantly, in their appraisal of our national character in this respect, only to find our unity crushed into the broadest of their shattered legions. I am proud of all of my American brothers.

I am proud that Americans are a people given to an essential stability of political sentiment, a stability actually gifted in self-government and democratic processes. They give and take in fair and open debate, and in the main, settle their differences in a cool and level-headed approach.

We are not, we have never been, and God grant we never shall be, a people of assassins, traitors, a people of constant upheaval and violence, of revolution, the barricades and the guillotine, the guillotine and the guillotine.

To be sure, as Gen. MacArthur said, "The American people are almost overcome by the merits and demerits of our processes of government." But the strength is being sapped by deficit financing too long indulged in.

The federal paternalism grown too much, by politics grown too corrupt, by crime grown too rampant, by morality grown too low, by taxes grown too high, by extremists grown too violent, and by the other personal liberties are as firm and unassailable as they should be.

Orderly Processes
These are questions that should be argued and settled, but I know that this will be done within the orderly framework of our constitutional process, and in no other way.

My land has rejected the demonstrated to history and to the other nations of the world that this can be a people of generating unparalleled power and dedicating it to good purposes, throughout the history of the civilization.

That we can create riches heretofore unimagined, that we can share this wealth with others less blessed in our strength or wealth. I know the enemies tell us that we are so rich that there is nothing left elsewhere to covet, and we are so powerful that we need not look around for friends. But they tend to overlook the old historical fact that there have been no great nations in our time that were not forgotten who in their times were equally rich and powerful.

Never has there ever been a land with a deeper or more concerned regard than ours for the rights of men everywhere, through their hunger and despairing eyes upon us for guidance and national strength of character. Surely this is part of God's design.

Have you ever considered how helpless and pathetic it would be to live in some remote and nameless, rain-unknown and unloved, nationally impotent subject to the whims of other nations' ambitions, never knowing from day to day who your current masters may be?

Close Link Between Quad-Cities And Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Campus

The dinner given by the Chamber of Commerce for the new Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Campus was a timely and constructive step toward fostering a close working relationship between this community and the new four-year state university opening this fall on a site immediately east of Quad-Cities.

The new school, assured of 5000 or 6000 students even before it begins registration Aug. 2 and opens its doors Sept. 22, will have a tremendous impact on Madison and St. Clair counties from the start.

This impact will then grow in dimension as other phases of current construction are completed and as new phases are launched. Rapid expansion of the facilities will be essential because of the great need here for higher education opportunities.

This community occupies a unique position because it is situated precisely between the campus and the center of a major urban complex. In a survey, most of the new staff members have indicated they hope to obtain homes near the campus but also near the major facilities and advantages of the metropolitan area.

The Quad-Cities have much to offer. With their balanced assessment base, they can offer lower property taxes and better governmental services than practically any community in this area. The wide range of subjects offered to students at Granite City high school, for example, is outstanding.

The university, in turn, has much to offer. In addition to providing inexpensive college education for local residents, it can and already is exerting a beneficial effect on the entire region. Its faculty members can serve as expert and active citizens in a variety of worthwhile undertakings in the cities where they reside, and countless university-sponsored programs can add to the depth and pace of the community.

Since the Quad-Cities' home university, just as much as it is for Edwardsville, East St. Louis, Alton and all of Illinois. Local interest in its progress—and local desire for its success—have no bounds.

Fine Start For Granite City Traffic Improvement Program

Granite City aldermen deserve high praise for their decision to consider a law eliminating 21 stop signs from intersections where they clog traffic and add to driving and walking hazards.

The positive approach taken indicates that the council has taken a step toward solving an auto congestion dilemma that has grown like a cancer in the past years through random, uncoordinated approaches to traffic control.

As the first in what may be a large number of improvements in vehicular flow, this week's precedent-setting action merits the thanks of local citizens.

Among the many advantages listed for the hormone tablet treatment of acne are:

1. Eliminates risk of skin irritation from harsh acne creams, lotions and soaps.

2. Reduces risk of sexual abstinence, which is often a result of using certain oral "anti-acne" hormones.

3. Accompanying deficiency of progesterone hormone in the female.

4. Two such deficiencies are potent medication and should NOT be used for any other purpose than the supervision of your physician.

5. One side reaction of some sex hormones, notably the male sex hormone, is an increase in the thickness of the skin. When more oil of the skin is produced, the glands of the skin begin to clog, and act as perfect traps for bacteria, dirt and debris.

6. Acne, more commonly known as pimples.

7. Anti-Acne Hormones. Some hormones do not exert their effect on the sex glands, but on the skin itself. In fact, they actually inhibit excessive skin oiliness.

Home Insurance Losses Pose Challenge For Quad-Cities, State And Insurers

A series of articles on insurance conditions and trends has revealed Quad-City's increasing difficulty in obtaining coverage on their residential and personal property, and some of the reasons why this is happening. We hope sufficient interest has been aroused to prompt home owners and insurers to seek solutions promptly.

Certain types of insurance have become unprofitable, forcing companies to take steps that in some cases may be unfair to particular communities or regions.

Already caught in a nationwide squeeze created in part by inflation, heavy losses and outdated rate-setting procedures, the Quad-Cities and adjacent metropolitan area experienced extensive hail damage last year. Existing "red-ink" turned into a torrent of deficits and brought both outright withdrawals from this area and greater restrictions on the type of policies written.

Although the situation is not yet acute, experience elsewhere shows the importance of an immediate reversal.

In essence, insurance companies should provide coverage for all kinds of risks, to avoid government intervention. But they are entitled to fair rates. Faster rate adjustments by state bureaus and greater rate flexibility according to the types of risks may offer partial answer. It also may be necessary for the public to adjust to a new outlook on insurance, depending on it primarily as a safeguard against major losses, rather than as a means of financing small, maintenance-type property repairs.

The local public can do much to improve its standing by giving thought to the topic and eliminating as many hazards and claims as possible. It will have to do this in a continuous way to enjoy a full choice of home insurance coverage.

We hope some of the young motorists are as eager to get ahead in the world tomorrow as they are to get ahead in traffic today.

New Example Of A Local Government Eliminating Property Taxes For A Year

Pontoon Beach trustees' decision to eliminate property taxes for the 1965-66 year is reminiscent of the one-year municipal tax abatement initiated in Madison more than a decade ago.

Madison officials have arranged Chain of Rocks Bridge refinancing that provided $100,000 yearly revenue for the city treasury. To call special attention to the development and to provide a "bonus" for taxpayers, they eliminated the city tax rate for a year. Of course, property bills still arrived on schedule, since the municipal portion is only a fraction of the total; school, township, county and levee district financing continued as usual.

A national magazine predicted that the Madison tax waiver would soon end. It did, but not for "gold city hall railings"; bridge receipts were used for street and sidewalk improvements and to supplement the property taxes received for other city expenditures. Funds already have been accumulated to establish an industrial park.

Abolition of the village tax is similar in that it does not halt school, township and other property taxation, nor can it be possible to have property taxes possible by utilization of cash reserves and the scheduled receipt of new license and permit fees, plus a decision to keep Pontoon Beach services and costs comparatively limited.

But the action which will affect taxpayers next spring, serves as a reminder that there can be isolated exceptions to the familiar saying about the certainty of taxes.

Many people say they would keep themselves in the best of spirits if prices were lower.

Madison police have opened a drive against motorists who do not have their cars properly licensed, and the first to be arrested on the charge was a Fifth street woman who was brought to the station and charged with operating a vehicle without a license.

She posted her driver's license as a condition of her release, but she must produce her city license. Less than 500 of the estimated 1300 persons owning cars have obtained their city licenses.

Freedom's Meaning

Big government must guard against becoming a haven for the semi-conscientious, the semi-indolent and the semi-complicit, who seek vice-like security tenure, certain wages and ultra-limited work rules. Conscientious administrators must continue to demand useful, procedural flexibility, in order that they do not find it impossible to remove superior or incompetent workers from the huge public payroll. John Wedig of Naimick township, a veteran of the Mexican war of 1845, narrowly escaped injury which might have proved serious to a person of his advanced years today when he flew from a ceiling fan in the circuit court room and struck him on the foot.

The accident occurred when Emil Rammacher, highway commissioner, touched the fan while patting on his coat, causing one of the blades castings to break and fly across the room.

F. M. Caughey, former postmaster of Granite City and a resident for many years, suffered a paralytic stroke at the home of his son, Vern Caughey, at Kansas City, Mo., and is in serious condition in the hospital there.

After a fight in the Granite City courts the past two weeks to recover a bicycle for which replevin papers were prepared by Mrs. Josephine Lill, night clerk operator of the office of the Kinross Telephone Co., the bicycle was turned over to her this morning by a lady who, according to the replevin papers, had possession of the vehicle.

Vandals who apparently had a grudge against Mrs. Josephine Frise, who operates a small dairy in Granite City, killed a cow belonging to Mrs. Frise. The animal was valued at about $300. Bloodhounds were used to track the vandals, but they were without success.

Construction of the last riverfront section of a $5,000,000 levee will be started soon by the East Side Levee and Sanitary district under a contract let yesterday to John Keely of East St. Louis. The levee board, Keesey got the contract for about $300,000 worth of work, in connection with large contractors from New York, Chicago and other cities.

Promoters of the proposed outlet sewer system for Granite City and adjoining area, who have been working for some time to bring about legal sanction to proceed with the project, have been engaged in a three-day battle with an opposing faction in the county court at Edwardsville.

Last evening when they returned from Edwardsville, they were well pleased with the proceedings and were of the belief that the project, which would be a sanitary sewer system for the city, will carry. Estimated cost of the system is $140,000.

Milk Inspector George Mueller issued an edict today that "washing of milk cans is the law of the land" and that customers in Granite City must stop. Mueller caused the arrest of a Granite City woman who sold milk to several local families in Granite City when he appeared at the farm in time to see the man's hands immersed in milk just freshly taken from a cow. The man was fined $10 and costs by Justice J. H. Sowell.

Council Seeks Count of Unsold 'Profile' Books

Former Alderwoman Gabriel Betinec, whose authorship of a booklet on municipal government prior to a spring city election campaign left the city with a printing bill to be notified by the city to "come in to the comptroller's office and make a count" on it results of sales of the booklet.

A decision to notify Mrs. Betinec to appear at the office of Comptroller John Doohier to make an accounting of money paid the comptroller's office for books that have been sold, and to make a count of the books still on hand, was approved by the council Monday night on motion of Sam Whitmer, Second Ward alderman.

The action followed receipt of a letter from Mrs. Betinec stating that all money collected from the sale of the booklets had been turned over to the comptroller's office and amounted to approximately $350, and that all unsold books had been turned over to the comptroller. Total cost was about $1700.

Number Uncertain
Mrs. Betinec said in her letter that the council could check with the comptroller as to the number of booklets still remaining. Doohier, however, told the council he did not know how many books there were.

The booklet, "Betinec's Profile," was published prior to the 1963 city election by Mrs. Betinec, who became a candidate for mayor. The book outlined municipal government procedures and contained points of information about Granite City council activities and governmental operations.

Prior to its publication, the council indicated that it would pay the printing bill for the booklet. It was to be sold at $2 per copy, eventually repaying the city for the amount of the printing bill.

Will Cost City
With $350 turned in this far from sale of the booklets, the city owes about $1150, of which some may be recovered through sale of the remaining booklets.

Whitmer said that until someone makes an accounting of the books on hand, no one knows if there are enough books left to make up the difference.

Several weeks ago, discussion of the printing bill came before the council, and at that time the council decided to ask Mrs. Betinec to detail the money received and the number of remaining booklets.

The letter received from Mrs. Betinec and read in Monday night's council session was in response to that action, and resulted in the decision to notify Mrs. Betinec to meet with the comptroller.

Aldermen in the past have expressed dissatisfaction with the name of the booklet and some of its contents.

City Resists Water Co. Charge on New Hydrants

Granite City council members decided Monday night to adopt a single "get tough" attitude with the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co., after the company told the city it would be required to pay the cost of laying mains for installation of new or relocated fire hydrants.

In response to a letter from the water firm informing the city that installation costs require city payment to assure a "return on our investment," Ford Johnson, Eighth Ward alderman, declared that "if the water company wants to get tough about a few fire hydrants, we can get the same way."

Walter Nomm of the Fifth Ward asked Mayor Donald Pate if "we don't have some kind of a bill pending to refund some taxes to the water company." The mayor replied there was such an action pending, involving about $5000 in personal property taxes.

"That is all that is necessary to know," Nomm responded. On a motion by Johnson, the council instructed City Attorney Richard Allen to write the water company, instructing it to proceed with installation of several scheduled hydrants "at your expense."

SPANISH PARTY held at Emerson grade school as a seven-week introductory Spanish course for 33 fourth, fifth and sixth graders came to a close last week. The three-hour morning class was taught by Mrs. William Patton Jr., who teaches at Maryville grade school during the regular school term.

The series of photographs shows a piñata being broken by blindfolded youngsters during the party, showering the students with candy treats. For several days, they had been experimenting with papier mache and crepe paper in constructing piñatas. At the party, they followed the custom of spinning the class members after they had been blindfolded, complicating the task of locating the treats suspended overhead.

"The students learned enough Spanish to get by if they were in Mexico," Mrs. Patton commented. Films and records were used in the instruction, and the students also played back their own recorded Spanish conversations as part of the learning process. The instructor had learned Spanish through high school and University of Illinois courses and through attendance at the National University of Mexico City. "The students caught on quickly. They finished the textbook and needed more material," she related. At the conclusion of the course, they gave the play, "Goldilocks and the Three Bears"—in Spanish.

Miss Barbara Crause, 2317 Wilson avenue, is among 97 high school seniors who have been awarded general scholarships to Indiana Central College, Indianapolis.

Education Helped Kathy Become Miss Illinois

The newly-crowned Miss Illinois believes her education and extracurricular activities at Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, helped her along the road that leads to Atlantic City.

Kathleen Oros, of Granite City, is a junior speech major at Eastern. She says her speech training and the coaching she received while starring in the spring production of "My Fair Lady" helped her through the various phases of the Miss Illinois competition.

In fact, Miss Oros carried her role of Eliza Doolittle through the talent phase of the statewide competition. She sang "Just You Wait," one of the numbers in the musical.

The brown-eyed, brown-haired Kathy is an enthusiastic booster of Eastern. And Eastern is a booster of Kathy.

Dr. Asa Ruyle, assistant to President Quincy Doudna, today issued this statement:

"Eastern Illinois University has an enduring interest in the accomplishments of its students, and we take genuine pride in the selection of Miss Oros as our state's representative in the Miss America beauty pageant. We are confident that she will represent her state and school with distinction."

Miss Oros, who won the state title after being selected as Miss Granite City, will compete in the Miss America pageant in Atlantic City in September. And she hopes "my instructors" will forgive me for being a few days late for the beginning of the fall quarter."

Kathy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Oros. She has a brother, Jerry, 27, and a sister, Irene, 12.

Miss Oros plans to teach after earning bachelor and master degrees.

SIU Library A-OK For Record Student Enrollment in Fall

With one of the nation's most completely automated circulation desks checked out and found A-OK, the Morris library at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, is ready for another anticipated record enrollment of students this fall.

In each of the past three years the library here has circulated more than a million books, according to Ralph E. McCoy, director of libraries.

The new electronic system—pioneering venture in automation in libraries—has solved the log jam at the circulation desk and now students can check out a book in 20 seconds, McCoy said.

Check-out and return cards are processed daily through the University's data processing center. Notices for overdue books are automatically prepared by the computer.

Library holdings at the two campuses, Carbondale and Quad Cities—Edwardsville, now total more than 800,000 volumes. McCoy said. Last year almost 90,000 volumes were added, making SIU 11th among the nation's colleges in new acquisitions, according to a national survey.

4000 Music Records
The Morris library here provides more than 4000 records of music and the spoken word, 80,000 maps, Braille translations and taped textbooks for use of blind students, and some 360 framed art reproductions which are loaned to students and faculty.

5 GC Students Cited For Averages at SIU
Five Granite City students were cited by academic deans at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, for high scholastic achievement during the past spring quarter.

They are Warren Markell, 2633 Adams street; Edwin W. Murphy Jr. and Thomas F. Murphy, 2412 Lincoln avenue; Karen J. Nix, 2828 Victory drive; and Charles W. Zinkoff, 2828 Wayne avenue.

New Acquisitions
Among the new acquisitions for the library are the extensive personal collection of Southern Illinois materials gathered by John W. Allen, SIU folklorist and historian, and the files of the University's Grant Association, which has moved its headquarters to SIU.

Named to Dean's List
Janice Williams of Granite City has been placed on the spring deans list at Olivet Nazarene College, Kankakee, it was announced this week.

The third and final session of ards of Joliet, Ill., are unit president camp for Girl Scouts of counselors.

The River Bluffs Council is now in progress at Camp Outaoua in Free Marquette State Park, near Joliet. Six hundred sixteen campers and 28 staff members are in attendance.

Campers are enjoying the usual delights of outdoor living: hiking, swimming, singing, cooking and campfires—and some unusual ones, too, such as making Air Force Base, two each from Cahokia, Lebanon, Mascoutah, O'Fallon and Staunton; and one each from Collinsville, Dupu and East Carondelet.

The current camp session ends tomorrow.

Campers from the Quad-City area are Susan Bauza, Phyllis Benoit, Camille Bischof, Candace Bischof, Kathy Chase, Rebecca Hathbrook, Debra Hodge, Sheri Holt, Deborah Lake, Karen McGovern, Stephanie Miller, Judy Morris, Kathleen Parmley, Janet Powell, Virginia Pyle, Anna Schilling, Martha Sortor, Pamela Thorne, Gail Vogeler, Cecilia Weiss and Sandra Yates.

Individual Development
Mrs. Chrysler noted the interest and dedication of adult staff members. "Every member of our staff," she director said, "has a real feeling for girls and an interest in their development as individuals. This is our first camp in staff recruitment, for this favorable attitude is hard to a happy camp."

Staff members are, assistant camp director, Mrs. Russell Phillips; cook-supervisor, Myrtle Phillips; and unit leader, Patricia Phillips, from Collinsville; Carolyn Cryler and Leslie Cryler, from Joliet; and Leslie Browne, general aide, and Bernard Haag, Kathy Backs and Cheryl Burgess, staff aides, from O'Fallon; Mrs. Lillian H. Barlow, East St. Louis, camp nurse.

Frances Gallaher, Caseyville, assistant cook; Jean Elbert, unit director; and Kathleen Garrett, Juliette Elbert, Norma Sivick and Sue Ann Spivek, unit counselors; from Belleville; Judy Levernier and Pamela Voith, unit counselors; Scott Anz, Elroy Base.

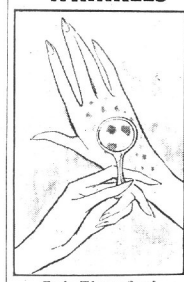

From outside the council's jurisdiction, Phyllis Doyle of Peoria, Mo., and Emily Bethel of Joliet, Ill., are unit leaders; and Carol Grandt and Ann Landman of Torrence, Ind.; Sharon Schertz of Kosciusko, Wis.; and Susan Richard of the Civil War general of the army and 18th president of the United States has been deposited in the Morris library and an extended project is being undertaken to obtain photocopies of microfilm copies of manuscript materials concerning Grant in other collections as well as in the hands of individuals.

To undertake a long-term program of collecting historical manuscripts, the library has created the position of university archivist and curator of historical manuscripts and has brought Kenneth W. Duckett, a nationally known manuscript specialist, to its staff. Duckett came from the Ohio Historical Society for which he was manuscript curator, and also has worked with the Oregon and Wisconsin historical societies.

Among projects by Southern Illinois University anthropologists are studies of the Huastec Indians of Mexico, a peasant community in southern Italy and a 20,000-year-old upperprehistoric culture of southwestern France.

County Sales Taxes Ahead of Last Year's Pace

April unincorporated area sales taxes of $14,034 increase to $52,597, the amount that has been returned to the Madison county treasury from Springfield so far this year. The fourth-month tally, ahead of last year, also includes $12,096 for January, $11,388 for February and $15,077 for March. The $14,034 figure was determined by deducting $138 in protested taxes and $384 (4% deduction for Illinois Revenue Department administrative costs) from the gross collections of $14,753.

Since the half-cent-a-dollar tax went into effect here in October 1959, the county has derived a total of $896,352. The 1964 total was $174,794, including $47,891 through April.

Farm Column

By Truman M. May
Madison County Farm Adviser

A report from the dairy department of the University of Illinois on dairy herd improvement associations of the state for the year ending in April shows that cows in the Madison county association are producing well above the state average.

In 25 Madison county herds completing the testing year, the average milk production per cow was 12,976 pounds, compared to the state average of 11,911 pounds. Average butterfat per county cow was 9.3 pounds, and 4.38 for the state average.

Average returns above feed costs per Madison county cow on DHIA testing was $336, and $275 per cow for all cows tested in the state.

The report also gives some interesting information on food and equipment used. Following are some of these items, with the number of the 25 DHIA dairy farms in Madison county using each: legume silage, nine; corn silage, 24; auger feed bunk, 17; silage unloader, 17; daily rotation pasture six; hay conditioner, 20; loose housing, 23; elevated milking parlors, 16; high level pipelines, 15; bulk tanks, 25; treating dry cows for mastitis, 18; separate calf bars, 23; using vitamins A supplement, 21; spring scales to weigh milk, 22; and milking meters to weigh milk, four.

The ten highest producing herds in the Madison County Dairy Herd Improvement Association in June were owned by Marvin Still, Norman Henke, Leland Steiner, Harold Klenke, Elmer Klenke, J. W. Autery, C. C. Becker and J. W. Autery.

son, Wilbur Federer, R. M. Kuttin and Vernon Warner. The highest producing herd for the month was owned by Marvin Still. This herd consisted of 31 cows. The average production was 1,611 lbs. butterfat and 41.3 lbs. milk per day with an average butterfat test of 3.9%.

Farmers are justifiably concerned about a new disease in corn, so far found only in the southernmost part of Illinois, but reported farther north in Missouri, called maize dwarf mosaic. It can wipe out an entire corn crop and may well become serious in future years.

Last week we visited a test field where many corn inbreds and crosses are being tested on a farm where the disease is present for the third year, located in Alexander county just across the Mississippi River from Cape Girardeau. The work is being done by plant scientists of the Illinois and Missouri state experiment stations, the state crop improvement associations and the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Some of the corn was tasseled out only a couple of feet tall, some plants were entirely dead, and others showed various effects up to practically normal. Some inbreds appear quite resistant and progress is already being made in developing resistant corn for farmers to grow, although it will take several years before the seed can be commercially produced.

Farmers finding any corn in their fields that might have the disease should report it to the farm adviser's office. If it appears that it might be maize dwarf mosaic, samples will be sent away for laboratory diagnosis.

Infected fields show these symptoms: At first, faint yellowish stripes appear in the younger leaves, together with a shortening of the uppermost internodes of the stem. This shortening causes the plant to appear bunched at the top.

As growth continues, the yellowing may increase in extent and intensity. Newly formed internodes show pronounced shortening, making the height only one-third to one-half that of healthy plants. The upper leaves of many, but not all, hybrids turn a brilliant purple-red. Diseased plants commonly develop extra ears that are smaller than normal ears and bear little or no seed. As the season progresses, the plants gradually die. The top leaves turn brown first. Drought accelerates the death rate.

The disease appears to be generally associated with Johnsongrass. It shows up first on bottomland fields, but can move to uplands. So far in Illinois, all infestations have been found in river or creek bottoms in or near fields where Johnsongrass is present. The connection with Johnsongrass is not clear, but this grass may be acting as an alternative host for the disease.

Several farmers have reported unsatisfactory work done by itinerant spray painters on farm buildings. Cheap paint that may start coming off in a few weeks and expensive work make such painting worthless compared to using paint and services from established local, reliable dealers. Use good quality paint that you can depend on; it's a lot cheaper in the long run.

Webworms Damaging Lawns

Many lawns were damaged by webworms last year and damage can be expected again this year. Sod webworm moths are flying and depositing eggs for another generation. First generation worms have caused no severe damage, as soil fertility and moisture kept the grass growing these past weeks. However, the moths now flying are seeking luxuriant lawns on which to deposit eggs.

The worms hatch and begin to feed. Then, as grass growth slows in early August, webworm damage to these lawns will become apparent.

If your lawn is now luxuriant and you observe signs of moths on your lawn during the next two or three weeks, be prepared to apply two pounds of actual carbing (Sevin) or one pound of actual diazinon per 10,000 square feet of lawn. They may be used as sprays or granules.

GCHS Teacher Enrolled In Education Workshop

Mrs. June Mills is one of 39 teachers from a four-state area attending Ball State University's education workshop in the Psychology of Human Development which will continue through Friday, July 30.

The workshop, instructed by Dr. Arno F. Wittig, assistant professor in Muncie, Ind., provides for participants to investigate psychological factors important in understanding human development.

Mrs. Mills, 2 Glenview place, Collinsville, teaches business English at Granite City high school.

When spraying, use sufficient water to get good coverage. Mow and water before applying. Do not water the lawn for three or four days after application. Do not apply insecticides unless you have seen lots of webworm moths in your yard at dusk.

Most of the trophies at the Black and White Show at Highland last week were won by Dell Farms, Elmer and Delbert Klenke of New Douglas. Other blue ribbon winners qualifying for the state show were Vernon Hitz, Brad Iberg, Walter Sievers and Melvin Adden. Junior showmanship winners were Dean DeVries and Betty Klenke. Sixty-eight Holstein cattle were shown.

The pond management demonstration on the John Peradotti farm in Pin Oak township last week was attended by 120 pond owners and others.

Weed control and fish populations are problems in almost all ponds. Circulars on these subjects are available at the farm adviser's office, Soil Conservation Service and the State Department of Conservation.

City Not Backing 'Tri-City' Anti-Poverty Group

A resolution under which Granite City officials pledge cooperation in the "war on poverty" program to the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission—and at the same time "rejects any association with or representation by" the Tri-Cities Economic Opportunity Commission—was approved unanimously by the city council Monday night.

The resolution was presented by Walter Nunn, Fifth Ward alderman and chairman of the ordinance committee, who made no comment on the bill.

The measure also approved a list of 15 persons appointed by Mayor Donald Partney as members of a Citizens War on Poverty Committee, to cooperate with the county organization and coordinate Granite City activities in connection with the program.

The measure pointed out that "leaders of all areas of Madison county have formed a historical committee to coordinate the activities of the various cities, schools, social agencies and private interest in regard to the Federal Economic Opportunity Act of 1964."

It stated further that "certain private interests have created an organization named the Tri-Cities Economic Opportunity Commission for the purpose of allegedly representing the people of the cities of Granite City, Madison and Venice."

The people of Granite City, however, "have need to be represented in this matter by a group of their own choosing," the resolution stated, and therefore "the city council of Granite City hereby gives full support and credit to the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission, and at the same time rejects any association with or representation by the so-called Tri-Cities Economic Opportunity Commission."

The resolution approved a committee made up of:

Mayor Partney, Supervisor Nelson Hagman, School Supt. Russell D. Johnson, M. A. Wirtz, Ringel, Park President Harry Loman, C. A. "Bud" McMillan, Joe Nemeth, David W. Morgan, Malcolm Thompson, Fred Goewert, William E. Hoelscher, Bernard Miller sr., Sister Mary Thomas, Milton Marsh and Robert McCormick.

EDWIN M. CLARK
10% of Time for Civic Service Urged in Book

"Leadership of community projects takes time and effort. How much is a question to be answered by each individual. I personally believe any businessman owes at least 10% of his time to community affairs."

The above is a sample of the ideas and beliefs expressed by Edwin M. Clark in a new book, "Philosophy of a Businessman."

President of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., Clark retired June 30 after serving as top executive of that company for the past 14 years. He is a co-sponsor of the Bi-State Development Agency.

The 261-page book, first published by the University of Missouri School of Business, contains excerpts from 27 of Clark's speeches made during his years as president.

Here are a few thoughts taken from the book:

On Communism: "I'm not really worried about Communism being able to take over this country from outside. I am worried about our internal tendencies toward a planned economy, which is a major cause for socialism."

On getting ahead in business: "Most important of all, you will find that business has a greater demand than ever for finding better ways to do every job and for plain, old-fashioned willingness to work. If you can provide those, you will have little to worry about in seeking a business career."

In the book's foreword, Dean Francis Walker cites Clark as a major force for improvement in his community and the region served by Southwestern Bell.

"The School of Business and Public Administration salutes Mr. Clark as one of Missouri's outstanding business executives and for his achievements in the role of educator," Walker adds.

A native of Danville, Va., Clark started his telephone career in 1925 in New York. He came to St. Louis as vice president of operations for Southwestern Bell in 1950 and was elected president of the company in July 1951.

William W. Owens, 16, of 4041 Redwood drive was fined $100 plus $5 costs on a charge of driving without a license and $25 plus $5 costs on a curfew violation Monday by Magistrate Hiscott. The charge was filed July 12.

Trinkets in Early S. Illinois Homes

By DR. JOHN W. ALLEN
Southern Illinois University

Before the time when color slides and viewers became common, one often found a glass jar or box of trinkets in the "parlor." In some cases, suitable objects would be pinned to the wall in a kind of a bulletin board fashion. Each trinket was a souvenir that told, at least in the eyes of some place visited, of some significant event or of some individual pleasantly remembered. Each bit of memorabilia would call forth a story if the observer looked even mildly interested. These collections of objects along with an album of stiffly posed photographs and tintypes, served no entertain.

Endless Variety
The boxes, pans and pin-up displays were of endless variety. One might find a relative's G.A.R. emblem, a bit of wood from the battleship Kearsarge, a clump of fescue tufts from the great Chicago fire, an unpollished moonstone from the California beach, or perhaps a quill from Maine. None was considered trivial, at least by the owner. Family members of the family could make talk by exhibiting these items and relating their stories while mother prepared a company meal. They definitely were conversation pieces.

Some of these once-treasured collections of memorabilia still are found.

An occasional item may suggest its own story to a viewer. A five-year Sunday School pin or a merit citation from grade four are readily understandable. Others do not talk so readily.

Rummaging through these old collections of ornaments invariably arouses a nostalgic feeling and at least suggests fragments of stories.

Toy Hatchet Found
A few days ago I found in one of these much varied collections kindled interest. It was a toy hatchet, one about four inches long. On its handle, after a good 60 years, there still were some carved fragments of the whittling that once adorned it.

This was a Carry Nation hatchet, practically never found now but common a lifetime ago when that name along with others of the hatchet-wielding brigade were the news.

The hatchets, full-sized ones, were their tools for working over the old-time saloons. With these, they sawed into many such places to break bottles, smash under-stationary, chip polished bars, make gasches in rooming like "Cleopatra at Her Bath," literally to make a shambles of the place.

These escapades shortly made Carry Nation one of the most notorious anti-saloon workers in the country.

Letter Recalled
Thoughts of Carry Nation might have passed by, had another reminder of her not come to attention the next week. The second reminder was a copy of a letter she wrote on the stationery of the New Commercial Hotel at Johnston City, Ill., on Oct. 22, 1906.

This was while she was on one of her tours of the state, crusading against saloons.

The toy hatchet and copy of the 1906 letter revived memories of the large, sturdy and colorful figure seen on a fourth of July evening some years earlier. That is, she was a colorful figure if a large, manly woman dressed in solid black and wearing a black poke bonnet—could be called colorful.

Careful and not colorful, the figure of the somewhat impressive woman remains vivid in memory. She sat at the open coach window when "Old Jake" (name given the local train) stopped at Francis Mills on its way from McLeansboro to Shawneetown.

Grabbed Man's Pile

Nothing unusual happened at Francis Mills. At Broughton, three miles earlier, she had reached down, plucked a pipe from the smoker who stood close beside her open window puffing furiously, and flung it into the crowd. The smoker had told friends what he would do—but he didn't.

Carry went on to her evening appointment at Eldorado. It is not so easy to discover what the lady was "for." A part of what she was against is evident in the Johnston City letter, given below. Perhaps it will qualify as a human document and give a glimpse of a time when crusaders were really crusaders.

"Dear Sir:
"I rode on your RR from Pinckneyville. At the latter depot there was a cigarette smoker in the ticket office to sell tickets, and not the agent. He was absent and the young man who came to the window began smoking cigarettes and filled the ladies' waiting room with this poison.

"When the agent came I told him. He never tried to stop it, and acted as if, telling me, 'You did not hire me.'"

"Men that are tobacco users are poor persons to depend on. Their time and thought are given to their booze. Tobacco and cigarettes are worse. No dependence their mind is unreliable.

"They steal and tell falsehoods and should not be employed by a RR where lives and property of the public are at stake. Besides, it is an insult to have the fearful poison thrown in your face.

"Carry A. Nation
"Your home defender."

"I take time from my busy life to write this. I hope not in vain."

Toured for a Decade

For ten years or more Carry Nation went about America crashing saloons, selling souvenirs at fairs and carnivals and lecturing over the country, to support herself. She was arrested some 30 times and often jailed.

Perhaps as much as any other individual she helped to create the atmosphere that brought prohibition to America.

Reading the story of her unhappy life as told in the book, "Carry Nation," will make her and the era more understandable and perhaps lead one to think that the methods of present day crusaders are not too strange.

Good, Bad Points Of Ponds Cited in Farm Safety Week

Ponds or small lakes are useful on the farm for water supplies, but they also are a source of danger if proper safety precautions are not taken. A. Frank Bridges of the Southern Illinois University Safety Center said today in connection with National Farm Safety Week (July 23-31).

Farm ponds and lakes—in fact, most bodies of water—increasingly are considered for recreational use as well as for sources of water for livestock and irrigation. They are used more and more for fishing, boating and swimming.

Bridges said the National Safety Council offers several suggestions for making ponds more safe for recreational use.

Fence, Signs Buys
One is to surround the pond area with a fence that cannot be climbed so children cannot play there without adult supervision. Frequent newspaper accounts of youngsters drowning in farm ponds emphasize the importance of this advice.

The farmer should mark areas of the pond which are safe for swimming and place warning signs at danger points. Safety instructions for swimming and boating should be posted nearby. Some lifesaving devices, such as ring buoys, ropes, or long poles, should be provided in a handy place at the pond for rescuing swimmers in difficulty or others who may fall into the pond and cannot swim.

Do Not Swim Alone
Not permitting a person to swim alone is another important safety rule, Bridges related. The same rule might be applied to fishing; always having a companion present gives greater assurance of rescuing a person in difficulty, he added.

Additional farm safety suggestions not touched on in an earlier discussion of points of emphasis for National Farm Safety Week deal with using farm machinery.

The National Safety Council says the wise farmer always carries a fire extinguisher and a first-aid kit on his tractor, trucks and self-propelled machinery.

The operator also ought to enforce the rule of carrying no extra riders on farm machinery and be most cautious about small children when machinery is in the driveway or work areas around the farmstead.

Tourists Note Roosters on Church Steeples

Tourists motoring in Illinois Expedition Land have something new for them in Monroe county—at Waterloo and at an adjoining country community called St. Joe, several miles distant.

There are roosters on the church steeples.

The large roosters atop the steeples of these two churches at least place them in the "different" category.

It is not unusual, motoring through Illinois, to see church steeples topped with a cross, a trumpeting angel, a sphere or other religious decoration. But of all things, why a lowly farm rooster?

One of the churches whose tall steeple is crowned by a rooster is the Zion Evangelical and Reformed Church along Route Three at Waterloo. The second church, of the same denomination, is at St. Joe, to the southwest, also known as the Burkesville community.

High Steeples
Both steeples are very high, and the copper roosters atop them are sizeable fowls, visible from some distance.

This reporter stopped a man on the street of Waterloo to ask him why the rooster was atop he replied, straightly, "I've lived here for years; I've never even noticed the bird up there."

Then he took a look skyward and saw the rooster, much to his amazement.

Why were the roosters put up there?

It seems that roosters were first used on Protestant church steeples during the Reformation. Purpose of the emblem was to remind people who saw it that it was Peter who denied Christ on the eve of the crucifixion, when these denials were marked by the crowing of the barnyard cock.

Back in pagan times the rooster was associated with various prophecies. In Europe, roosters atop church spires are common, but the practice was not generally carried over to America.

Waterloo residents say that the rooster was the work of a local coppersmith, Louis Wall, who also is credited with making many of the copper applebutter kettles still in use. The rooster was put atop the steeple in 1874, and has been "pointing the wind" ever since.

Historic Trail
The rooster atop the St. Joe church is similar in style and design. This church, incidentally, is on the old Bellefontaine-Kaskaskia trace, one of the historic trails through southern Illinois, associated with the early French settlements at Kaskaskia and Prairie du Rocher, during the days following the liberation of the colonies by George Rodgers Clark.

Motel Guests Skip Out

New Soil Conservation Registration Aug. 2-13
A new sign-up period for soil conservation practices under the Agricultural Conservation Program is scheduled for the first two weeks of August. This announcement was issued by Walter F. Bardenheuer, chairman of the local ASC committee, today.

During this period, producers begin their sign-up for limestone and rock phosphate to be used during the last five months of the year and permanent soil conservation practices. All materials must be applied according to soil test, and must be used in connection with soil improving grasses and legumes.

After mid-August, requests for practices can be approved only if funds are available at the time for these practices.

All requests for consulting assistance under the program must be filed at the county office located at 110 North Main street, Edwardsville. A request must be on file before a practice is started. Farmers interested in practices involving limestone and other materials should bring along their soil tests.

Five Radar Arrests

Ticketed in radar operations Monday were James M. Birk, 1638 East 23rd street; Robert L. Dorch, 2908 Warren avenue; and Elynn E. Dekey, 1601 Lindell Blvd., for Aug. 11 hearings.

Fairness in Sewer Election Circulars Urged by Citizens

The board of directors of the Committee for Economic Improvement for Nameoki Township today called for fair play in the Aug. 24 special election and extended its "thanks to the large number of registered voters who are interested in the future development of their township and continue to believe in the democratic form of government."

The board referred to citizens' signatures on petitions calling for a public referendum on Ordinance No. 5 of Nameoki township, authorizing issuance of sewer revenue bonds totaling $1,900,000.

"The circulation of the petitions was performed by volunteer workers at their expense, and the results were most gratifying to all concerned."

"There were people who did not have the opportunity to sign the petition due to various reasons such as vacations, not at home, etc., and we extend our apology to these people, as time did not permit too many calls to obtain their signatures."

"This organization strongly feels that an issue of this nature and importance must be decided by the people in a democratic way. We are requesting the township board to interpret the laws in their proper perspective and the election be conducted in an honest and fair manner."

"We ask that any campaign literature that might be circulated contain nothing but facts and true statements and bear the signatures of the proponents of such literature."

"If people are afforded the facts, they will make an intelligent decision on election day."

The statement was issued on behalf of the Committee for Economic Improvement for Nameoki Township, over the signatures of Matthew Ropac, president, and Edward Phelps, secretary-treasurer.

The application is the most important indicator of suitability for Peace Corps service. It must be filled out and brought to the exam unless previously submitted.

Applicants should plan on about one and a half hours at the testing center, unless they want to take the Spanish or French language achievement test, which requires an additional hour.

Next Peace Corps Test Date Will Be Aug. 14

Another opportunity for Quad-City area residents to offer their abilities to the Peace Corps will come at 9 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 14, at Room 414, Federal Building, 750 Missouri avenue, East St. Louis, or Room 1719, 1520 Market street, St. Louis.

The opportunity is the Peace Corps Placement Test, which is not passed or failed and "you can't study for it." It measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language.

If, for example, test scores indicate limited languages acquiring ability, the Peace Corps tries to place the applicant in an English-speaking area. The test is used by the Peace Corps only as a tool in the matching of volunteers and jobs.

Travelodge Guarantees Business Travel Rate

The Granite City Travelodge today announced that it has joined all other Travelogdes in North America in introducing a guaranteed maximum rate plan for business travelers.

Under the plan, local companies will be assured that their employees, while traveling on business, will never pay more than a pre-set maximum rate at any of the 350 Travelogdes in the country.

Companies qualified to participate will be supplied an identification card and a special maximum rate directory of Travelogdes for each employee who travels on business. The directory lists the maximum rate to be charged by each motel in the network for employees who have Travelodge identification cards.

When an employee stops at a Travelodge motel, he will pay no more than the preset maximum regardless of the accommodations available. For example, if the employee wants a single room and only a suite is available, he will be charged the suite rate.

If the lower cost room is desired and available, a rate lower than the guaranteed maximum will be charged. The plan will be in effect throughout the year and will not be affected by seasonal fluctuations in rates which occur in resort areas.

The plan is not limited to large companies nor to any particular type of organization. Government agencies are included. The only limitation is that the guaranteed maximum rate applies only for business travel.

PLAY—CHILD'S BUSINESS
Play is an important business to young children. And problems created while children play are as big as those created for them to handle as figuring out next year's budget is to you.

You and your children grow up, you have fresh and interesting experiences. Often, new experiences and surroundings are a source of tiredness, boredom and doubts.

If you can go exploring with the same sense of adventure as your youngsters and can share his buildings from the base, his enthusiasm, both of you will benefit. For your child, and exploration in which he can use his hands and his feet as well as his eyes is the simplest way to develop new experiences.

Sunshine offers many opportunities. The woods, the park or the zoo offer a new environment to explore. Wading in a nearby shallow pond, or picking berries, or visiting the fire station, the railroad station and the corner gas station all offer action and variety to a child—and an observant adult.

At home, children may be inspired by a book or a picture. A lemonade. Their business of playing can include helping you clean the house, especially the attic, washing the car or the dog or planning a picnic.

A child also needs time alone. With each parent, time to think and to dream with you in casual companionship, a preschool child often confides his personal difficulties or makes the imaginative, whimsical comments that parents treasure always.

A FISH STORY

If you've got a fisherman in the family, or even next door, you'll probably face some fish cleaning chores this summer. You may wish to follow these tips on how to clean and dress a fish:

Wash the fish. Then remove the scales by scraping the fish gently from the tail to the head, using the dull edge of a knife. Cut the fish the entire length of the belly, from vent to head, and remove the entrails. Then remove the head by cutting above the collar bone and breaking the backbone over the edge of a cutting board or table.

Remove the large back fin by cutting the flesh along each side and pulling the fin out. Sever from the fins with shears or a knife because the bones of the base of the fin will be left in the fish. Wash the fish thoroughly in cold running water. It is now dressed, ready to cook.

Large dressed fish may be cut crosswise into steaks for broiling. Cut steaks about 3-inch thick.

Filletlets, cut down the back of the fish from the tail to the head. Then cut down to the backbone just above the collarbone. Turn the knife flat and cut the flesh along the backbone to the tail, allowing the knife to run over the ribs. Lift off the entire side of the fish in one piece. Turn the fish over and cut fillets from the other side. You also may skin the fillets.

If you're planning to freeze fish steaks and fillets, give them a second dip in solution made up of two-thirds-cup salt to one gallon of water. Then wrap and freeze them.

PECTIN FOR JELLIES
While some kinds of fruit have enough natural pectin to make high-quality jellies, others require added pectin. There are two forms of commercial fruit pectins on the market: liquid and powdered. They are made from apples or citrus fruits. Either form is satisfactory when a recipe developed especially for that form is used.

Many prefer the added-pectin method because all fully ripe fruit can be used. Cooking time is shorter and is standardized so that there is no question about when the product is done. Then, too, the yield from a given amount of fruit is greater.

Store fruit pectins in a cool, dry place so that they will keep their full strength. Do not hold them over from one year to the next.

Man Given Three Months
Roger Clements, 39, of 2145 Benton street, was sentenced to three months on the state prison farm at Joliet Monday by Magistrate Hiscott. He was arrested last September on five charges following the shooting in Madison where he was on probation for burglary.

Woman Fined $50, Costs
Dorothy Foster, 3204 Kirkpatrick Homes, was fined $50 plus $3 costs Monday by Magistrate Hiscott on a charge of permitting an unauthorized person to drive. The charge was filed Monday.

Vandals Mar House
Pawson Wade, 3314 Wabash avenue, reported at 9 a.m. Tuesday that vandals had thrown some unknown substance on his house during the night.

Hoener Opens Firm for Advertising, Marketing

Gordon J. Hoener, local banker, has climaxed 15 years of experience in advertising, public relations, sales and marketing by opening his own advertising and marketing firm.

He has worked in retail merchandise promotion in St. Louis, as client service manager at Padeo Advertising Co., St. Louis, and until the present time as public relations officer at Granite City Trust & Savings Bank. He will continue to work with the bank as advertising agent and public relations counsel.

Commenting on his new enterprise, Hoener said "Gordon Hoener Marketing will be concerned with helping companies, particularly younger ones with limited promotional budgets, to develop well-rounded marketing programs."

"As an advertising man and a banker working with numerous companies, both large and small, I saw that success could be usually the result of a well-balanced mixture of advertising, public relations, publicity, research, sales training and other factors, plus a dash of showmanship. My objective is to do what is best for the client in order to help him achieve maximum sales and profits."

"Hoener money" trademark will be used on his letterheads and business cards and for company advertising.

The marketing firm will be based in Clayton, Mo. An affiliate, Financial Marketing Consultants, also of Clayton, will work exclusively with banks, savings and loan and other financial institutions.

Big news for telephone users:

Reduction of excise tax means lower telephone bills for Southwestern Bell customers in Illinois

Effective January 1, 1966, the Federal Excise Tax on telephone service will be reduced from 10 to 3 per cent. Following the initial drop, the tax will be lowered 1 per cent each year until it is eliminated in 1969:

Telephone users will receive the full cash benefit from this tax reduction. The tax, which is levied directly on those who use telephone service, has been included on monthly telephone bills, and each month your tax payment has been sent on to the federal government. In effect, the telephone company has been a collection agency. Telephone bills, beginning in January, will be reduced to reflect the 7 per cent decrease.

When the excise tax is eliminated in 1969, Southwestern Bell telephone customers in Illinois will save more than $800,000 annually. This means that about $70,000 a month will be added to their spendable income.

Council Buys Air Conditioners; to Seek Street Bids

A recommendation by Second Ward Alderman Edmund Bartosiek, chairman of the city hall committee, that Granite City buy four new air-conditioners for five dealers. Bartosiek told the council that there had been insufficient time to advertise for bids.

After quoting the figures from all sources, he pointed out that the lowest were from State Radio Co., $1078, and Western Auto. The difference was $132.

He presented a motion to purchase the units from Western Auto and in subsequent discussion several aldermen objected to making the purchase without advertising for bids. Richard Fry, Sixth Ward alderman, made an unsuccessful attempt to amend the motion to require advertisement before any purchase was made.

At this point Bartosiek asked the board of the unit handled by Western Auto. He reminded that it was known as "Warrior."

First Motion Defeated

On a question as to the brand offered by State Radio, he replied that it was RCA. On the subsequent roll call, the motion to make the purchase from Western Auto was defeated 8-4. Bartosiek then moved that the purchase be made from State Radio. This carried unanimously.

the street and alley committee, obtained approval of a motion to award future work for sidewalk construction to A. H. Seebald Co. on a low bid of 64 cents per square foot for four-inch walks and 85 cents for six-inch walks.

The bids were received a week ago and referred to Sternberg's committee for recommendation. Two other bids were received.

Award Point Contract

The council, also on Sternberg's recommendation, awarded a contract to Colquhoun Co. of St. Louis for purchase of white and yellow paint for traffic marking. The company submitted the low bid of $225 a gallon in five-gallon drums and 20-gallon lots, on both yellow and white paint. Two other bids were received.

Sternberg's committee also obtained approval of a motion authorizing Comptroller John Doohier to advertise for bids for bituminous resurfacing work on street projects set up in the new appropriation ordinance.

Sam Whitmer, Second Ward alderman and chairman of the police committee, received passage of a motion authorizing Doohier to advertise for bids for a new station wagon for the police department. The vehicle will be equipped for work with police dogs.

Purchase of the new car was provided in the new city budget. Whitmer also obtained approval of a motion authorizing the comptroller to seek bids on purchase of two new motorcycles. Three used motorcycles are to be traded in, Whitmer said.
